A WARM WELCOME TO THE CALIFORNIA JAZZ CONSERVATORY!

On behalf of the California Jazz Conservatory, I want to extend a very warm welcome to you from our family of faculty, students and staff.

In choosing the California Jazz Conservatory, you have selected the only music conservatory in America that is fully accredited, completely independent and totally devoted to jazz.

In choosing the California Jazz Conservatory, you have elected to study with faculty members who are leaders in the field of jazz and, more importantly, leaders in the world of jazz education.

In choosing the California Jazz Conservatory, you have demonstrated your commitment to jazz; in return, we offer our commitment to you, transforming you from being a jazz musician to becoming a jazz artist.

We are pleased to offer five pathways to that end, five distinctive programs of study for your education here at the California Jazz Conservatory:

- Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies
- Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies / Brazilian Jazz Concentration
- Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies / Audio Production Concentration
- Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies / North American Roots Music Concentration
- Associate of Arts in Jazz Studies

Each program offers you a solid foundation in jazz, while affording you the opportunity to concentrate on areas of expertise designed to enhance your professional standing.

This is a special year at the California Jazz Conservatory, a year in which we'll be celebrating our 20th anniversary all year long.

With a new look and new programs, a new campus facility, new classrooms, new practice rooms, a new performance venue and a new jazz cafè, we look forward to your joining in the celebrations!

Thank you for choosing the California Jazz Conservatory and welcome to our family!

Yours in jazz,

Susan Muscarella

THE CALIFORNIA JAZZ CONSERVATORY

HISTORY AND PROGRAMS

Founded in 2009, the California Jazz Conservatory (CJC) is positioned as the only independent, accredited music conservatory in the country devoted solely to the study and performance of jazz and related styles of music.

The CJC is located in the historic Kress Building on Addison Street in the heart of the Downtown Berkeley Arts District. Part of the vibrant East Bay performing arts scene, the CJC is situated in close proximity to the Berkeley Repertory and Aurora Theatres, The Freight & Salvage, the Berkeley Art Museum and Pacific Film Archive, and the world class performing arts presenter Cal Performances at the University of California, Berkeley.

The CJC offers instrumentalists and vocalists a 4-year Bachelor of Music degree in Jazz Studies with areas of concentration in Brazilian Jazz, Audio Production and North American Roots Music, and a 2-year Associate of Arts degree in Jazz Studies.

The CJC holds its students accountable to the highest artistic, academic and ethical standards at all times. Students are evaluated on their performance in classes; juries; concerts; and Senior Project, a final project synthesizing their artistic and academic work over the course of their chosen program of study.

The California Jazz Conservatory offers students:

- A synergistic, comprehensive jazz education and performance program for today's professional jazz instrumentalist and vocalist
- Small classes taught by professional artists and experienced educators in the field of jazz and related styles of music
- Opportunities to study with preeminent visiting artists and educators
- Performance opportunities at prominent Bay Area venues; workshop opportunities with resident faculty and visiting artists
- Opportunities to record, study and perform at the world-renowned recording facility Fantasy Studios
- Access to important networking opportunities
- Easy access to the San Francisco Bay Area's thriving arts scene via public transportation

The California Jazz Conservatory is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It does not discriminate in the admissions process or in the awarding of financial aid on the basis of race, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, or disability.

THE BACHELOR OF MUSIC DEGREE IN JAZZ STUDIES

BACHELOR OF MUSIC CURRICULUM REQUIREMENTS

Instrumentalists — The CJC awards the Bachelor of Music degree in Jazz Studies to instrumental students who satisfactorily complete 134 – 136 credits of study divided among: a) core music courses / 89 credits (pianists) / 91 credits (non-pianists); b) elective courses (15 credits); and c) general studies courses (30 credits). (See Curriculum Requirements Templates for more information.)

Vocalists — The CJC awards the Bachelor of Music degree in Jazz Studies to vocal students who satisfactorily complete 136 credits of study divided among: a) core courses (91 credits); b) elective courses (15 credits); and c) general studies courses (30 credits). (See Curriculum Requirements Templates for more information.)

AREAS OF CONCENTRATION

The California Jazz Conservatory offers areas of concentration (specialized plans of study) within the Jazz Studies major in Brazilian Jazz, Audio Production and North American Roots Music. Areas of concentration provide Jazz Studies majors with the opportunity to specialize in an area of particular interest to them. (See under Curriculum Requirements Templates.)

• Brazilian Jazz

Available to both instrumentalists and vocalists, the concentration in Brazilian Jazz provides students with the opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of and appreciation for the music and culture of Brazil — from its folkloric roots to its intersection with modern jazz.

With its infectious African-influenced rhythmic underpinnings, rich European-derived harmonic and melodic language and exhilarating American jazz-based element of improvisation, Brazilian jazz ranks as one of the most sought-after styles of music in the world today.

The concentration in Brazilian Jazz broadens the scope of the Jazz Studies major, enabling students to:

- Concentrate on a style of music they have determined to be both personally fulfilling and critically relevant to their lives as aspiring professional musicians
- Learn from and play with a preeminent faculty of resident and visiting Brazilian jazz artists and educators
- Broaden their knowledge of Brazilian culture, including gaining fluency in the Portuguese (Brazilian) language
- Expand their range of employment opportunities in the areas of performance and education upon graduation
- Acquire specialized prerequisites needed for pursuing a higher degree in Brazilian jazz or in areas with relevance to Brazilian music and culture
- Expand their knowledge of art and culture from a global perspective

• Audio Production

With access to educational resources from one of the world's foremost recording facilities, Fantasy Studios, located in Berkeley, California, the concentration in Audio Production is designed to provide instrumentalists with a practical understanding of this far-reaching and exciting field.

The concentration in Audio Production broadens the scope of the Jazz Studies major, enabling students to:

- Concentrate on an area they have determined to be both personally fulfilling and critically relevant to their lives as aspiring professional musicians
- Learn from a faculty equipped with decades of real world experience in audio production

- Gain expertise in both technical and musicrelated fields, expanding their employment options
- Gain invaluable hands-on experience in recording and production in world class Fantasy Studios
- Prepare for a higher degree in Recording Arts and Sciences

• North American Roots Music

The concentration in North American Roots
Music (also referred to as North American "traditional music") examines the stylistic development and cultural origins of our North American folkloric music — from nineteenth century work songs and spirituals to the present.

The concentration in North American Roots Music broadens the scope of the Jazz Studies major by enabling students to:

- Concentrate on a style of music they have determined to be both personally fulfilling and critically relevant to their lives as professional musicians
- Learn from and play with a preeminent faculty of resident and visiting traditional music artists and educators
- Broaden their knowledge of North American culture
- Expand employment opportunities in the areas of performance and education upon graduation
- Acquire the prerequisites they need to pursue a higher degree in North American roots music or areas with relevance to North American roots music
- Broaden their knowledge of music and culture on an international scale based on the profound influence that the music and culture of other countries have had on the development of North American Roots Music

Residency Requirements

All instrumentalists and vocalists are required to complete a minimum of 34 credits in residence during their junior and/or senior year at the CJC.

Juries

Students are required to take four juries over the course of their studies at the CJC as they move from one class level — e.g. Freshman or Sophomore — to the next. The purpose of these juries is to evaluate students' progress in private instruction, and to confirm their mastery of the material covered in the CJC's core Jazz Theory and Improvisation and Ear Training and Sight Singing curriculum.

The timing of juries correlates with class level. Students must take a jury when advancing in class level to continue their studies at the CJC. Class level is determined by the total number of credits earned towards their degree: students who have earned between 0 and 34 credits are considered Freshmen, and so on as shown below.

Credits completed	Class Level
0 – 34	Freshman
35 – 68	Sophomore
69 – 102	Junior
103 +	Senior

Senior Project

Graduating seniors must complete a Senior Project comprising a performance of original compositions and/or arrangements in a full length concert open to the public.

Performance

The Jazz Studies undergraduate degree program has performance at its center.

Instrumentalists are required to take a total of 20 credits of performance ensembles including jazz (10), Afro-Caribbean (2), Brazilian (2) and elective (6). Instrumentalists may also use 4 elective credits toward performance ensembles. (See Instrumental and Vocal Curricula.)

Vocalists are required to take a total of 28 credits of performance courses in both solo and ensemble formats. Repertoire covers a wide range of styles from the Great American Songbook to contemporary jazz, world and popular music. Vocalists may also use 4 elective credits toward performance ensembles. (See Instrumental and Vocal Curricula.)

Public performance is an integral component of students' tenure at the CJC. Students perform for the public a minimum of twice per year. Performances include concerts at the CJC, dates at clubs throughout the Bay Area, and appearances at specially scheduled events.

Additionally, students may attend over one hundred concerts scheduled at the CJC throughout the year free of charge. The CJC Concert Series features a range of local, national and international artists. Visiting artists of note have included the Heath Brothers, Theo Bleckmann, Kenny Werner, Taylor Eigsti, Peter Erskine, Quartet San Francisco, Pete Escovedo, Paula West, John Zorn, Geoffrey Keezer, Ambrose Akinmusire and many others.

Core Music Courses: Instrumental Track

Instrumentalists are required to take 91 (nonpianists) / 89 (pianists) credits of the following Core Music Courses: 20 credits of stylistically varying performance ensembles over eight semesters including: Jazz Repertoire Ensemble (8 credits of PRF100-400 series); Latin American Ensemble (2 credits of PRF030 series); Brazilian Jazz ensemble (2 credits of 040 series); Indian Ensemble (2 credits of 050 series); and ensembles of their choice (6 credits). Note: 4 additional credits may be taken as Elective courses. Additional required Core courses include: Ear Training and Sight-Singing (12 credits); Keyboard Proficiency (2 credits); Jazz Theory and Improvisation (15 credits); Form and Analysis of Jazz Standards (2 credits); Jazz Composition (3 credits); Jazz Arranging (3 credits); Latin American Roots of Jazz (2 credits); Jazz and Cross-Cultural Practice (2 credits); Western European Harmonic Practice (6 credits); Western European Music History (6 credits); Music Technology (5 credits); Business of Music (4 credits); Private Instruction (8 credits); and Senior Project (1 credit).

Core Music Courses: Vocal Track

Vocalists are required to take 91 credits of the following Core Music Courses: 28 credits of stylistically varying performance ensembles over eight semesters including: Vocal Performance (24 credits); and Vocal Jazz Ensemble (4 credits). Note: 4 additional performance credits may be taken as elective courses. Additional required courses include: Ear training and Sight-singing (12 credits); Keyboard Proficiency (2 credits); Jazz Theory and Improvisation (12 credits); Jazz Composition (3 credits); The Great American Songbook (2 credits); Lyric Writing (2 credits); Western European Harmonic Practice (6 credits); Western European Music History (6 credits); Music Technology (5 credits); Business of Music (4 credits); Private Instruction (8 credits); and Senior Project (1 credit).

Electives

All students are required to complete 15 credits of elective courses in fulfillment of requirements for the Bachelor of Music degree. Students may transfer up to 5 degree-relevant elective credits from any accredited institution on a by-approval basis by the Dean of Instruction. Note: 4 elective credits may be taken as Independent Study; 4 elective credits may be taken as Performance.

General Studies Courses

A range of General Studies courses is offered at the CJC. The CJC also accepts select General Studies requirements/electives from any accredited institution. Tuition for General Studies courses at other institutions is additional.

All students are required to take 30 credits of General Studies courses. General Studies requirements include: English Communication (6 credits); Social Sciences (12 credits); Arts and Humanities (6 credits); Mathematics and Quantitative Reasoning (3 credits); and Physical Sciences (3 credits). (See Department of General Studies beginning on page 56.) Please note: the Social Sciences and Physical Sciences General Studies requirements are not transferable from another institution. These requirements must be fulfilled at the CJC.

THE ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE IN JAZZ STUDIES

Independent Study

Independent Study affords junior- and seniorstanding students an opportunity to independently undertake special research-oriented projects extending above and beyond the parameters of the curriculum.

Students may apply up to 4 elective credits to Independent Study. Students interested in pursuing Independent Study are required to submit a proposal in writing to the Dean of Instruction outlining the project scope, objectives, time frame for completion and their preferred faculty advisor.

Upon approval, students are required to sign a contract with their advisor agreeing to complete the project. A letter grade is issued based upon completion of projected objectives within the proposed timeframe.

Keyboard Proficiency

All students must demonstrate a basic level of keyboard proficiency to graduate, either by completing Beginning Piano for Non-Pianists and Jazz Piano for Non-Pianists, or by passing an equivalent keyboard proficiency exam. Keyboard proficiency exams are given on a to-be-arranged basis throughout the year.

Workshops and Master Classes

Students have the opportunity to attend a broad range of specialized short-term workshops taught by local and visiting artists throughout the year. Previous workshops by visiting faculty include Bobby McFerrin, Geoffrey Keezer, Christian McBride, Kurt Elling, Jeff "Tain" Watts, Nancy King, Ron Carter, Dave Weckl, Nnenna Freelon, Matt Wilson, Rudresh Mahanthappa, Dafnis Prieto, Winard Harper, Taylor Eigsti, Donald Harrison, Uri Caine and others. In addition to attending master classes, students often have the opportunity to schedule private lessons with visiting artists. The cost of private lessons with visiting artists varies and is on a to-be-arranged basis between the student and artist.

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS CURRICULUM REQUIREMENTS

Instrumentalists — The CJC awards the A.A. degree in Jazz Studies to instrumental students who satisfactorily complete 66-68 credits of study divided among: a) core music courses 42 credits (pianists) / 44 credits (non-pianists); b) elective courses (6 credits); and c) general studies courses (18 credits). (See under Curriculum Requirements Templates.)

Vocalists — The CJC awards the A.A. degree in Jazz Studies to vocal students who satisfactorily complete 68 credits of study divided among: a) core courses (48 credits); b) elective courses (2 credits); and c) general studies courses (18 credits). (See under Curriculum Requirements Templates.)

Residency Requirements

Instrumentalists and vocalists are required to complete a minimum of 17 credits in residence during their third and fourth semesters at the CJC.

Juries

Students are required to take two juries over the course of their studies at the CJC: the first at the end of the first year, and the second at the end of the second year. The purpose of these juries is to evaluate students' progress in private instruction, and to confirm their mastery of the material covered in the Jazz Theory and Improvisation and Ear Training and Sight Singing curricula.

Students must take a jury when advancing in class level to continue their studies at the CJC. Class level is determined by the total number of credits earned towards their degree: students who have earned between 0 and 34 credits are considered Freshmen; students who have earned between 35 and 68 Credits are considered Sophomores.

Class Level
Freshman
Sophomore

Performance

Instrumentalists are required to take a total of 12 credits of performance ensembles including jazz (4), Afro-Caribbean (2), Brazilian (2), Indian (2) and elective (2). Instrumentalists may also use 4 Elective credits toward performance ensembles.

Vocalists are required to take 12 credits of Vocal Performance. Repertoire covers a wide range of styles, from the Great American Songbook to contemporary jazz. Vocalists may use 2 Elective credits toward performance ensembles.

Students perform for the public a minimum of twice per year. Performances include concerts at the CJC, dates at clubs throughout the Bay Area, and appearances at specially scheduled events.

Additionally, students may attend concerts scheduled at the CJC throughout the year, free of charge. The CJC Concert Series features a range of local, national and international artists.

Core Music Courses: Instrumental Track

General Studies Courses

Students are required to take 18 credits of General Studies courses. General Studies requirements include: English Communication (6 credits) and Social Sciences (12 credits). (See Department of General Studies, page 28.)

The CJC accepts the English Communication General Studies requirements from any accredited institution. Tuition for General Studies courses at other institutions is additional. Note: the Social Sciences requirement is not transferable from another institution. This requirement must be fulfilled at the CJC.

Keyboard Proficiency

All students must demonstrate a basic level of keyboard proficiency to graduate, either by completing Beginning Piano for Non-Pianists and Jazz Piano for Non-Pianists, or by passing an equivalent keyboard proficiency exam.

Workshops and Master Classes

Students have the opportunity to attend a broad range short-term workshops – two, free of charge – taught by local and visiting artists throughout the year. Students may schedule private lessons with visiting artists on a to-be-arranged basis between student and artist.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Course Numbering

The 100- and 200-numbered courses are lower division courses. The 300- and 400-numbered courses are upper division courses.

MUSICIANSHIP

MUS100A, MUS100B, MUS200A and MUS200B

Ear Training and Sight-Singing

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A four-semester course designed to develop aural and visual perception of rhythmic, melodic and harmonic components of music. Course material is jazz-based.

MUS101

Keyboard Proficiency— Piano for Non-Pianists

1 credit, 1 hour lecture/lab

Entry-level keyboard technique for non-pianists covering scales, reading and playing basic repertoire. Serves as prerequisite for MUS201.

MUS102

Individual Tutorial

1 credit, 1 hour lecture/lab

Individual supplemental instruction in a wide range of areas, including but not limited to a secondary instrument, musicianship, theory, harmony, composition, arranging and history. Students may take up to 4 elective credits of MUS102. Please note: MUS102 may not substitute for a requirement.

MUS103A, MUS103B, MUS203A and MUS203B

Supplemental Musicianship Skills

1 credit, 2 hours lab

A supplement to MUS100A–MUS200B, a course designed to strengthen musicianship skills. Suggested prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in the corresponding musicianship class; highly recommended for drummers and vocalists.

MUS104

Drum Set Technique for Non-Drummers 2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

Basic drum set technique as applied to jazz and related styles of music. All instruments and voice.

MUS105

Introduction to Mallet Percussion

1 credit, 1 hour lecture/lab

A hands-on introduction to the fundamentals of mallet percussion technique. Topics covered include basic types and styles of strokes, bar placement, and vibraphone pedaling and dampening, as applied to both two- and fourmallet playing.

Prerequisites: MUS101 or equivalent. No prior stick technique required.

MUS201

Keyboard Proficiency — Jazz Piano for Non-Pianists

1 credit, 1 hour lecture/lab

An introduction to jazz piano technique addressing voicings, voice leading, soloing and comping, as applied to standard jazz repertoire. Useful for composing and arranging.

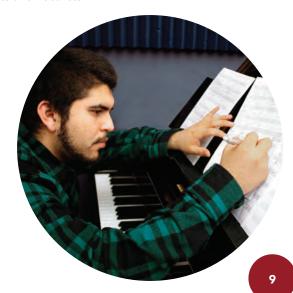

Prerequisites: MUS101 or consent of instructor.

MUS202

Sight Reading Workshop

1 credit, 1 hour lab

A lab focusing on developing sight reading skills relevant to the jazz music genre. Open to instrumentalists and vocalists.

MUS204

The Application of Eurhythmics to Jazz Repertoire

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

Interpreting distinct rhythmic and melodic aspects of select repertoire through coordinated physical movement and the voice. Instrumentalists and vocalists gain a deeper understanding of the rhythmic and melodic underpinnings of significant jazz and related repertoire to facilitate performance. Students are advised to wear comfortable clothing to class.

Chart Reading Workshop for Drummers 3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A hands-on workshop for drummers designed to develop proficiency in sight reading and interpreting standard lead sheets and drum charts for both large and small ensemble. Students work with pre-recorded jazz, funk, Latin, pop, rock, fusion and show arrangements. Covers articulations, set-ups, fills, tempo modulation, negotiating stick changes and utilizing the click track.

MUS207

Double Bass Ensemble Workshop

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

A course designed to develop technical facility through select repertoire for double bass ensemble.

MUS208

Gypsy Jazz Guitar Styles and Techniques 2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

Analysis and practical application of the stylistic and technical aspects of gypsy jazz guitar style from Django Reinhardt to the present.

An acoustic guitar (played with a pick) is required.

MUS209A and MUS209B

Practical Applications for the Rhythm Section 2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

A two-semester hands-on, interactive course for pianists, guitarists, bassists and drummers focusing on rhythmic considerations relevant to the rhythm section. Course covers the role of the individual and the rhythm section as applied to jazz, Afro-Caribbean, South American and World music styles past and present.

MUS300A and MUS300B

Advanced Musicianship

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A continuation of MUS200B. Designed to further develop aural and visual perception of advanced rhythmic, melodic and harmonic material. Includes sight singing, sight reading, rhythm, interval and chord recognition, and transcription.

Prerequisite: MUS200B.

MUS308

Drum Grooves and Solos in Odd Meters 2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

A class focusing on grooves and solos over odd and mixed meters as applied to jazz and funk genres. Students study approaches embodied by groups including Dave Brubeck, Mahavishnu Orchestra, Dave Holland, Sting, Brad Mehldau and the Pat Metheny Group among others.

MUS309

Fusion Drumming Styles and Techniques 2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

Fusion drumming styles and techniques from the sixties to the present. Students learn the stylistic and technical approaches utilized by fusion masters Tony Williams, Steve Gadd, Dave Garibaldi, Bernard Purdie, Peter Erskine, Billy Cobham, Clyde Stubblefield, Alex Acuna, Steve Smith among others who blended the power of rock, the syncopation of funk and the finesse and technique of jazz into their respective personal styles. Techniques include odd meters, linear drumming, funk independence and the all-important ghost notes.

MUS110

Vocal Technique for Instrumentalists

1 credit, 1 hour lecture/lab

An introduction to vocal technique and song interpretation. Repertoire includes the Great American Songbook and standard and contemporary jazz. Covers basic stage presence and microphone technique. Instrumentalists may take up to 2 credits of Vocal Technique for Instrumentalists.

MUS150

Introduction to North Indian Tabla

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

An introductory course focusing on proper posture, tone production and hand and finger techniques required for the practice of Indian percussion. Students learn the fundamentals of North Indian rhythmic concepts through exercises and classical compositions, and master complex Indian rhythmic cycles through the recitation of vocal percussion syllables. Soloing, arranging, and compositional concepts are also applied to jazz and other styles of music. Open to instrumentalists and vocalists.

Prerequisites: Students must own or rent tabla. Tabla may be purchased or rented from the Ali Akbar College Store in Berkeley (aacmstore.org).

MUS130

Introduction to Afro-Latin Percussion Styles and Techniques

2 credits, 3 hours lab

A hands-on introductory course focusing on Afro-Latin percussion styles and techniques. Emphasis on rhythms specific to Afro-Latin music as applied to congas, timbales, bongos, güiro, maracas, chekere, and cajón, among other Afro-Latin percussion instruments.

Prerequisites: the ability to read rhythmic notation.

MUS240

Brazilian Jazz Guitar Styles and Techniques

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab elective

The intersection of various styles of Brazilian music (samba, bossa nova, baião, frevo and choro among others) with jazz and their application to the guitar. Open to all guitarists: acoustic and electric, nylon and steel string, pick and fingerstyle.

MUS250

North Indian Music Fundamentals Through Voice

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

A general overview of the styles, forms and practices of the traditional North Indian vocal tradition. Open to both vocalists and instrumentalists, this course includes participatory singing, familiarization with the Indian solfège system, exploration of the melodic concepts of raga, and the rhythmic concepts of tala.

Prerequisites: Musicianship 100B.

MUS180

Roots Guitar Styles and Techniques for Non-Guitarists

1 credit, 2 hours lab

An entry-level course in the fundamentals of roots guitar styles and techniques for non-guitarists.

Note: This course is a requirement for non-guitarists enrolled in the concentration in North American Roots Music.

Prerequisites: Students must have access to a quitar.

MUS280

Traditional Fiddle Styles and Techniques

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

Traditional fiddle styles and techniques, including old-time, Celtic, Cajun and bluegrass. Open to violin, viola, cello and bass.

MUS190A and MUS190B

Yoga for Musicians

1 credit, 1 hour lab

A course for musicians to strengthen mind, body and spirit. Warm-ups, stretches and posture exercises alleviate the aches and pains that can result from playing; breathing techniques increase lung capacity and reduce stress; and meditation eases performance anxiety and promotes greater awareness of the moment.

MUS191

Alexander Technique

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

A hands-on introduction to the Alexander Technique, a method used by musicians worldwide to prevent and resolve playing-related injuries, pain and/or stage fright. Inappropriate muscular tension and unconscious habits of misuse can interfere with technical facility, sound quality, freedom of expression and the joy of playing music. The Alexander Technique enables instrumentalists and vocalists to develop poise and ease of movement in practice and performance.

THEORY

THE100A, THE100B, THE200A and THE200B

Jazz Theory and Improvisation

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A four-semester course covering jazz theory and improvisation techniques and styles based on the artistic practice of jazz masters, from the early twentieth century innovations of Louis Armstrong, to the contemporary artistry of Herbie Hancock and beyond. Students gain a solid understanding of jazz theory and improvisation, from the fundamentals to chord/scale theory, soloing, reharmonization, and transcription and analysis. Theoretical concepts are illustrated with select recordings of leading jazz artists and applied to relevant exercises and repertoire in class. This course lays important groundwork critical in the development of individual style.

THE201

Introduction to Jazz Transcription

1 credit, 1 hour lecture/lab

An introduction to techniques for transcribing jazz melodies, rhythms, and chord progressions. Transcribing assignments increase in level of difficulty throughout the semester. This course serves as an optional prerequisite for THE200B, which involves advanced level transcription.

THE300A

Advanced Jazz Theory and Improvisation 3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

An introduction to the harmonic and melodic approaches David Liebman innovated and expanded in his seminal book A Chromatic Approach to Jazz Harmony. Beginning with John Coltrane and the second Miles Davis quintet (who independently began developing an advanced jazz language of chromaticism in the 1960s), this course addresses the work of David Liebman, along with Michael Brecker, Chick Corea and others who later that decade moved it to a new level of sophisticated control of consonance and dissonance that remains the gold standard for controlled harmonic tension and release, most commonly known as 'playing in and out of the changes.'

Prerequisite: THE200B or consent of instructor.

THE300B

Advanced Transcription and Analysis of the Jazz Masters

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A continuation of THE300A Jazz Theory and Improvisation, focusing on transcription and analysis of more challenging works by jazz masters.

The nature and history of polyrhythms and odd rhythm groupings and their application to composition and improvisation. All instruments and voice. Prerequisites: MUS100A and THE100A

THE205

Single Line Soloing for Instrumentalists 3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A course for instrumentalists focusing on developing single line soloing techniques idiomatic to the bebop and post-bop traditions. Includes analysis and performance of key transcriptions of bebop and post-bop masters as well as in-class application of the fundamental devices employed in modern jazz improvisation.

Prerequisites: MUS201 and THE100B.

THE315A, 315B

Single Line Soloing for Vocalists

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A course for vocalists (or instrumentalists who wish to participate as vocalists) focusing on developing single line soloing techniques idiomatic to the bebop and post-bop traditions. Includes analysis and performance of key transcriptions of bebop and post-bop masters as well as in-class application of the fundamental devices employed in modern jazz improvisation.

Prerequisites: MUS201 and THE100B.

THE330

Latin Jazz Theory and Improvisation 3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

Latin jazz theory and improvisation techniques and styles based on the artistic practice of Latin jazz masters, from the early twentieth century innovations of Arsenio Rodriguez to the contemporary artistry of Eddie Palmieri and beyond. Students gain an understanding of Latin jazz theory and improvisation, from the rhythmic fundamentals, including the function of clave, to chord/scale theory, soloing, reharmonization, and transcription and analysis. Theoretical concepts are illustrated with select recordings of leading Latin jazz artists and applied to relevant exercises and repertoire in class. This course lays groundwork critical in the development of individual style.

Prerequisites: THE200B or concurrent enrollment.

THE250

Traditional North Indian Rhythmic Concepts for the Jazz Musician

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

An in-depth exploration of traditional rhythmic concepts from the North Indian system of classical music. Through the medium of vocal percussion syllables known as bols, students are introduced to Indian rhythmic idioms such as tala (rhythmic cycles), layakari (rhythmic modulation), and tihai (thrice-repeated cadential phrases used to end a musical idea). Students learn traditional Indian rhythmic compositions drawn from the repertoire of classical North Indian percussion instruments such as tabla and pakhawaj. This class delves into the history and theory of North Indian rhythm as well as its influence on jazz over the last 50 years. Emphasis is placed on pointing out the crosscultural applications of Indian rhythmic concepts to any instrument and any style of music, enriching students' compositional and improvisational skills.

THE251

Traditional South Indian Rhythmic Concepts for the Jazz Musician

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

An in-depth exploration of traditional rhythmic concepts from the South Indian system of classical music. Through the medium of vocal percussion syllables known as solkattu, students are introduced to Indian rhythmic idioms such as tala (rhythmic cycles), nadai (odd subdivisions of the beat), layakari (rhythmic modulation), and mora (thrice-repeated cadential phrases used to end a musical idea). Students learn traditional Indian rhythmic compositions drawn from the repertoire of classical Indian percussion instruments such as tabla, mridangam, kanjira, ghatam, thavil, and morsing. Emphasis is placed on pointing out the cross-cultural applications of Indian rhythms to any instrument and any style of music, enriching students' compositional and improvisational skills.

HARMONY

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

Focusing on compositional styles of the Romantic and Contemporary Periods, this second-semester course covers formal analysis, advanced techniques related to sequences, mixture, Neapolitan chords, augmented 6th chords, diatonic and chromatic modulation, and twelve-tone techniques.

HAR390C

20th Century Harmony

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A course examining works by the major composers of western art music from the beginning of the 20th century to today. Analysis of the theories behind various post-tonal approaches. Coursework focuses on short composition exercises utilizing the various practices studied. Emphasis is on integrating these tools into students' own work. The final project is a short composition read by a professional ensemble.

Prerequisites: HAR390B. Concurrent enrollment in PRF390 also recommended.

COMPOSITION

COM210

Lyric Writing

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

A course focusing on the various techniques utilized by lyricists including Great American Songbook legends Lorenz Hart, Cole Porter and Howard Dietz; vocalese wordsmiths Jon Hendricks, Annie Ross, Kurt Elling and King Pleasure; and popular songwriters Joni Mitchell and Sting. Students build a repertoire of original lyrics set to select instrumental works as well as their own compositions. Open to vocalists and instrumentalists.

Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in PRF110A and PRF210A required.

COM300

Jazz Composition

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A concentrated writing course utilizing the compositional styles and techniques of the master composers as a point of departure in creating new work. Composers studied include Ellington, Parker, Silver, Mingus, Monk, Coltrane, Hancock, Henderson, Shorter, Brecker, Liebman, Grolnick, Pastorius, Towner and more. Melodic, harmonic and rhythmic techniques employed in the music of Mozart, Beethoven, Brahms, Debussy and other relevant past masters are also examined and applied to students' work.

COM400

Jazz Composition Seminar

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A continuation of COM300. A seminar addressing advanced composition techniques and their practical application in performance.

Prerequisite: COM300 or consent of instructor.

COM301A

Jazz Arranging — Small Ensemble 3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A one-semester introductory course on basic jazz arranging techniques for the small ensemble. Students learn ranges and characteristics of instruments, rules for notating rhythm, how to lay out a score, how to write for the rhythm section, how to compose melodies and chord progressions, how to set a melody to chords, how to voice chorale-style chords, how to harmonize a moving melodic line with two to five voices, and various ways of addressing form. Students are assigned three to five arranging projects. The final project is an arrangement for five horns and rhythm section that is recorded.

COM301B

Jazz Arranging — Large Ensemble 3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A one-semester introductory course on basic jazz arranging techniques for the large ensemble. Students review ranges and characteristics of instruments, rules for notating rhythm, how to lay out a score, how to voice chorale-style chords, and how to harmonize a moving melodic line with five voices. Through analysis of works by the masters from Duke Ellington to Maria Schneider, students also explore different techniques for large scale development of form, chord voicings for more than five horns and large ensemble texture and orchestration techniques. Required text: Inside the Score, by Rayburn Wright. Students are assigned three arranging projects. All assignments must be completed on a program such as Finale or Sibelius. The final project is an arrangement for full big band.

Prerequisite: COM301A or consent of instructor.

COM390

Counterpoint

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

Contrapuntal techniques and styles of seventeenth- and eighteenth-century instrumental and vocal music, providing a solid foundation for voice leading. Includes the writing of cantus firmus, two- and three-part species counterpoint, and combined species in three voices, in major and minor modes. Analysis of a range of important contrapuntal work including the canons, inventions and fugues of J.S. Bach.

HISTORY

Jazz History

A four-semester course examining the musical and cultural development of jazz, from its antecedents in the musical cultures of West Africa, Western Europe and the New World, to the music that is performed internationally today. Through extensive listening, reading and discussion, students gain a solid understanding of jazz, a twentieth-century urban dance music that has become globally celebrated as a cultural art form embodying the ideals of freedom and democracy.

HIS100A – 200B fulfills the CJC Social Sciences requirement. Please note: the Social Sciences requirement is not transferable from another institution. This requirement must be fulfilled at the CJC.

HIS100A

Jazz History — The Roots of Jazz and Early Jazz, Pre-1900 – 1919

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

This course examines the influences of West African, Caribbean, South American, Asian and European music and culture on the development of jazz pre-1900, and on the early music of New Orleans that became known to the world as jazz by 1917. The course focuses on the West African conceptual approaches, practices, and cultural conventions that form the foundation of jazz, and its origins in spirituals, blues, ragtime and other African American sacred and secular music. The development of jazz is studied within the historical context of American social forces including post-bellum segregation, the industrial boom and the Great Black Migration, World War I, and the invention of the radio and sound recordings.

HIS100B

Jazz History — Style and Culture in America from 1920 – 1939

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A survey of early jazz styles from the Jazz Age of the Prohibition era through the reign of the swing bands and the jitterbug. The music of Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Ella Fitzgerald and many others is studied within the contexts of the post-World War I economic boom, the Great Depression, ballrooms and big bands, the rise of sound motion pictures, American musical theater and the Great American Songbook, among other socioeconomic and cultural touchstones.

Prerequisite: HIS100A.

HIS200A

Jazz History — Style and Culture in America from 1940–1959

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

This course explores jazz as an art form, with a focus on the musical innovations of modern jazz through the beginnings of free jazz. Styles including bebop, hard bop, funk, Latin jazz, cool jazz, and other styles created by Dizzy Gillespie, Thelonious Monk, Miles Davis, Max Roach, the Modern Jazz Quartet, Art Blakey's and Horace Silver's Jazz Messengers, Ornette Coleman and many of their collaborators are examined, focusing on instrumental grouping, structural, harmonic and rhythmic creativity, and folk influences. Students draw connections between the mid-century impact of World War II, the Atomic Age and the Cold War, the hegemony of television, advertising, the burgeoning Civil Rights Movement and other historical epochs upon the evolution of jazz.

Prerequisite: HIS100B.

HIS200B

Jazz History — Style and Culture in America from 1960 – Present

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

This course surveys the range of idioms and subgenres of post-Coltrane jazz, particularly the evolution of free jazz with the AACM, the 1970s New York Loft Scene, jazz in Europe, the music and ideas of Wynton Marsalis juxtaposed with the electronic fusion music of Miles Davis and his collaborators, Herbie Hancock, Weather Report, Chick Corea and others, and the return of jazz to its dance origins. The steady influx of global influences from traditional and contemporary musicians from Africa, Asia, and the New World continues to infuse a diverse range of compositional styles, forms and instruments into the jazz world.

Prerequisite: HIS200A.

HIS261

History of Funk

3 credits, 2 hours lecture

A course tracing the history of funk, the R&B-based genre that originated in the 1960s. Influencing a wide range of musics including gospel, rock, jazz, hip-hop, Afro-Caribbean and South American, funk also reflected the radical social change of the 60s and 70s, including the struggles for Civil Rights, Black Power, Women's Rights, Gay Rights and the emergence of alternative cultures. Artists and bands covered include Ray Charles, James Brown, Sly and the Family Stone, Ohio Players, Parliament Funkadelic, Earth, Wind and Fire, Miles Davis, Weather Report, and Herbie Hancock's Headhunters as well as Bay Area-based bands Tower of Power, Cold Blood, Azteca, Sons of Champlin, Pointer Sisters, Larry Graham and GCS, and George Duke.

HIS110

The Great American Songbook: The Jazz Standard

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

An overview of the evolution of The Great American Songbook — the canon comprising American popular songs written originally for musical theatre and later film between 1920-1950. Now the cornerstone of modern jazz, the repertoire of the Great American Songbook arose during the decade of the Jazz Age, The Great Depression, WWII and the unprecedented economic growth that took place in 1950s America. This singular body of work manifested hope, built morale, eased social barriers and reflected our country's promise for the future. Students examine the lives and perform the work of the central composers of this period, including Jerome Kern, Irving Berlin, George Gershwin, Cole Porter, Duke Ellington, Richard Rogers and Harold Arlen among others. Note: This course serves as a requirement for vocalists and is a highly recommended elective for instrumentalists. Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in PRF110A and PRF210A required.

HIS300

Jazz and Cross-Cultural Practice

2 credits, 2 hours lecture

A review of selected musical traditions of the world and their cross-cultural and intercultural application to jazz.

HIS301

New Orleans: The Birthplace of Jazz 2 credits, 2 hours lecture

A course tracing the musical influence of the international port of New Orleans, the melting pot for music innovation and cultural exchange that is the wellspring of the American art form, jazz. Explores the African American experience of cultural resilience through dance, singing and drumming traditions that fused elements from various cultures with gospel, blues and the Latin tinge. Includes analysis of important recordings as well as in-class performance of traditional and modern New Orleans-style funeral marches, street parades, brass bands and other music employing improvisation, syncopation, call and response and friendly competition that continue to influence music throughout the world.

HIS302

The Miles Davis Legacy

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

Arguably one of the most important and influential figures in modern jazz, trumpet player, bandleader and innovator Miles Davis shaped virtually every facet of America's most important art form throughout a recording and performing career that spanned six decades. Beginning with Charlie Parker's group in 1945 until his death in 1991, Miles directly influenced every important jazz movement and musician. Through his recordings and those of his towering sidemen, this course traces the development of modern jazz from bebop to cool, to hard bop to modal, to orchestral jazz to "time no changes," to fusion.

HIS308

The Language of Hard Bop

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

Drawing on quintessential recordings of the 50s and 60s hard bop era, students listen to, explore and discuss selected works of hard bop masters, focusing in particular on the collaborative spirit inherent in jazz. Recordings include iconic Blue Note Records artists such as Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers "family tree," Miles Davis' small groups and more. Students apply concepts characteristic of the hard bop style to in-class performance of jazz repertoire.

Prerequisites: MUS200B and THE200B or permission of instructor.

HIS309

Jazz Oral History Methodology

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

An introduction to jazz oral history methodology. Students learn research techniques in literature review focusing on biographies and autobiographies; oral history methodologies including research, preparation, transcription and analysis of interviews; and interview, audiovisual and archival techniques and their application. In partnership with the Smithsonian Institution, students work with and contribute to the collection of the Smithsonian Jazz Oral History Program at the National Museum of American History. Prerequisite: HIS100A or consent of instructor.

HIS310

The Jazz Singers

2 credits, 2 hours lecture

A history class focusing on the legendary jazz singers from the perspective of the first instrument, the voice. Students listen to and learn about a gamut of jazz singers and their greatest contributions, beginning with the precursors of jazz from work songs, field hollers, spirituals, rag and blues, to the "holy trinity" — Billie Holiday, Sarah Vaughan and Ella Fitzgerald — on to jazz today and its future. Students learn to identify stylistic nuances unique to each artist as well as becoming familiar with the important instrumentalists supporting them. Lectures include an overview of the social climate of each period, fostering a greater understanding of how this music was created and has evolved. Film shorts of some of the renowned artists are shown throughout the course. Students are asked to attend and write reviews of two live jazz concerts.

HIS320

Bowed String Players in Jazz

2 credits, 2 hours lecture

An in-depth study of influential bowed string players in jazz from the late nineteenth century to the present. In a combined lecture and master class format, students gain insight into the important stylistic contributions bowed string players have made to the broader jazz art form.

Prerequisites: THE100A or equivalent.

HIS330

Latin American Roots of Jazz

2 credits, 2 hours lecture

A survey of the evolution and relevance of the Afro-Latino roots of jazz. This course examines the pan-American sociopolitical circumstances that brought Afro-Latino music and jazz together as branches of the same tree. Emphasis is placed on the historical development of the especially influential music of Cuba, New York and Puerto Rico. Students listen to rare recordings from 1900 to the present. Music is analyzed through lecture, listening and discussion and broadens an understanding of jazz from both stylistic and historical perspectives.

HIS340

Brazilian Roots of Jazz

2 credits, 2 hours lecture

A survey course tracing the Brazilian roots of jazz — from their mid-nineteenth century African and European-influenced folkloric origins to the mid-twentieth century emergence of the sambaderived bossa nova and beyond.

HIS370

The Beatles

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

An examination of the life and work of the incomparable English rock and pop group The Beatles, framing the group's career in the context of the vibrant social, cultural, and political climate of the 1960s. Attention is given to the group's impeccable song writing, their rapid rise to fame, and their creative use of newly-available technology in the recording studio.

HIS385

History of American Roots Music from 1900 – Present

2 credits, 2 hours lecture

HIS386

The Blues: From Spirituals to Ornette Coleman (New)

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A course focusing on the salience of the blues, tracing its late nineteenth century origins in African-American spirituals, work songs and field hollers to its ubiquitous role throughout the historical continuum of jazz.

HIS387

Protest Songs — From the African American Work Song to Women's Rights

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

An historical overview of protest songs, from the African American roots tradition (work songs, spirituals, field hollers, moans, ring shouts and plantation dances) through the Civil Rights, Anti-War, Free Speech and Women's Rights movements — sacred and secular oral traditions manifesting cultural resistance and a cri de coeur for freedom and equality.

HIS390A

History of Western European Music from Antiquity to 1750

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

This course traces the development of Western European art music from the 10th century through the middle 18th century, focusing on the musical styles of the master composers of the Medieval, Renaissance and Baroque periods. Emphasis on the socio-economic and political conditions that gave rise to them.

HIS390B

History of Western European Music from 1750 to the Present

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

This course traces the development of Western European art music from the middle 18th century through the twentieth century and beyond, focusing on the musical styles of the master composers of the Classical, Romantic and Twentieth Century periods and beyond. Emphasis on the socio-economic and political conditions of each period.

HIS390C

History of 20th Century Music

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A sequel to HIS390B, a course tracing the lives and music of seminal 20th century composers who abandoned the functional harmonic conventions of the past for uncharted territory: from the 12-tone serialism of Schoenberg to the minimalism of Glass. Composers examined include Debussy, Stravinsky, Bartók, Berg, Webern, Cage, Partch, Carter, Boulez, Takemitsu, Reich and Adams, among others. Emphasis on composers' respective philosophical viewpoints within the wider historical context of the 20th century.

Prerequisites: PR210B or consent of Vocal Chair.

PRF111A and PRF111B

Vocal Jazz Ensemble

2 credits, 2 hours lab

Repertoire includes historic arrangements from groups including Lambert, Hendricks & Ross and the Singers Unlimited as well as original charts and arrangements. Emphasis on singing close harmony parts, sight reading, intonation and creating a stylistically relevant ensemble sound.

Prerequisite: PRF110B.3, audition or by consent

Prerequisite: PRF110B.3, audition or by consent of vocal chair.

MUSIC TECHNOLOGY

TEC100

Introduction to Music Technology

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

An introduction to software tools available for sequencing, sampling, scoring/music notation, simple recording and production. This course also covers software and web-based services that assist with developing skills in basic musicianship. Students must own or have access to a laptop computer with Sibelius software (version 6 or higher) installed for use in class.

AUDIO PRODUCTION

Audio Series — Audio Engineering

AUD300A

Digital Audio Workstation I (DAWI)

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

An introduction to the Digital Audio Workstation (DAW), the hardware and software designed for the recording, editing and playing of digital audio files.

Prerequisites: Students must own or have access to a laptop computer with Pro Tools software (version 9 or higher, or Pro Tools First) installed for use in class.

AUD300B

Digital Audio Workstation II (DAWII)

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

A continuation of DAW I, this course delves further into editing and mixing capabilities of the Digital Audio workstation. Includes advanced editing techniques and an introduction into mixing in "In-The-Box."

Prerequisites: AUD300A.

AUD300C

Digital Audio Workstation III (DAWIII)

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

This course is an introduction into the digital music recording and production platform Logic.

Location: Classroom. Prerequisites: AUD300A.

AUD305A

Mix I

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

An introduction to the process of mixing. Includes mix setup and simple multi-track mixing as well as the history, philosophy and theory behind mixing. Lab Fees: TBA.

Prerequisites: AUD300A; AUD310A

AUD305B

Mix II

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

Advanced mixing techniques including parallel compression and automation. Covers big console and analog/digital hybrid mixing that meet industry standards. Location: Fantasy Studios. Lab Fees: TBA. Prerequisites: AUD305A.

AUD400A

Studio Recording I

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

An introductory course on the fundamentals of studio recording. Includes microphone choice and placement, console and studio signal flow, session setup and protocol, and live recording. Discussion and utilization of limiters, compressors, and other signal processing equipment used in the recording process are part of in-class activities and recording sessions. Students' final project consists of engineering the Live-to-2-track project. Location: Fantasy Studios. Lab Fees: TBA.

Prerequisites: AUD300A, AUD310B.

AUD400B

Studio Recording II

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A course focusing on the techniques and protocols involved in multi-track recording projects. Includes analysis of advanced large-format console signal flow and exploration of sophisticated ensemble microphone techniques. Students engineer the final project for Music Production I (sound-a-like). Location: Fantasy Studios. Lab Fees: TBA Prerequisites: AUD305A, AUD300B, AUD401.

AUD401B

Post Production I

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

An overview of the world of sound and music for motion pictures, examining the different aspects of post-production including ADR, sound design, Foley and film scoring among others.

Prerequisites: AUD300B.

Audio 010 Series — Studio Technology

AUD310A

Audio Technology I

2 credits, 2 hours lecture

A course in the foundational principles of digital and analog audio technology. Includes recording consoles (design, function, and signal flow), principles of signal processing (reverberation, delay, equalization, compression, and other effects), and an introduction to microphone and loudspeaker technology.

AUD310B

Audio Technology II

2 credits, 2 hours lecture

A continuation of Audio Technology I, this course delves further into the technical aspects of the recording studio. Covers microphones, advanced studio and console signal flows and block diagrams, and synchronization and MIDI integration. Location: Classroom and Fantasy Studio B. Lab Fees: TBA. Prerequisites: AUD300A; AUD310A

AUD410

Studio Electronics

2 credits, 2 hours lecture/lab

An in-depth look into the inner workings of a recording studio, this course will explore cables and connectors, audio circuits, schematics, levels in audio, and basic studio equipment maintenance and troubleshooting.

Prerequisites: AUD310B

AUD411

Recording Studio Internship Program (Existing as REC101 Recording Studio Internship Program)

3 credits, 2-3 days week/lab

In conjunction with Fantasy Studios at Zaentz Media Center, a course providing supervised practical training in the inner workings of a professional, multi-room recording facility. Internship training includes:

- Basic recording techniques and microphone placement
- Basic recording session design and setup
- Signal flow theory and patching
- Basic mixing console theory and application
- Recording session etiquette
- Proper microphone and equipment handling and storage
- Basic studio administrative tasks
- Client concierge services
- Hospitality maintenance and cleanliness

Location: Fantasy Studios

Prerequisites: AUD300B; AUD400A; résumé and consent of Fantasy Studios Internship Program Coordinator

Audio 020 Series — Music Production

AUD320

Survey of Music Production

1 credit, 1 hour lecture

An investigation into every step of music production. Includes an historical overview of the music production industry along with project management and the process of creating a successful independent or major label release. Students analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the various production techniques used in producing select demos and commercial recordings.

AUD321

Critical Listening for Audio Production

1 credit, 1 hour lecture/lab

A course designed to develop listening skills critical to the field of audio production through analysis of recording and mixing techniques. Covers balances, panning, EQ, reverb, compression, delay and time-based effects, instrument identification and stylistic comparisons of recording and mix techniques. Listening analysis examples and concepts are reinforced through weekly critical listening assignments. Students participate in weekly ear training drills.

AUD402

Music Production I

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

A course covering the fundamentals of music production, including defining the goals of a recording project with artist or client; selecting musicians, composers and/or arrangers; choosing appropriate technical resources appropriate to the budget and goals; working with instrumental and vocal soloists; and orchestrating and motivating all of the participants and resources — from rehearsal to recording, to the final mix. Students' final project consists of producing a remake of a classic song (a sound-a-like).

Location: Classroom/Fantasy Studios.

Lab Fees: TBA.

Prerequisites: AUD320; AUD400A

BUSINESS OF MUSIC

BUS300

Audio for Live Performance and Recording

1 credit, 1 hour lecture

An introductory overview of live performance audio systems and basic recording technology providing an explanation of the signal path from the source through the microphone to its eventual destination of live show, loudspeaker or recording media. Strategies for successful live performance and interaction with live recording engineers are presented.

BUS301

Legal Aspects of the Music Industry for Jazz Musicians

1 credit, 1 hour lecture

An overview of the various legal issues in the music industry and the manner in which the law and technology have shaped the evolution of the industry. Covers current legal issues faced by jazz musicians and jazz labels and the business practices that are being developed to address them. Provides an understanding of the principles of contract and copyright law and covers topics relevant to jazz musicians today, including the role of agents and managers, live performance agreements, recording contracts, music publishing, producer agreements, licensing music for motion pictures, television and commercials, understanding royalty statements and the distribution and sale of music on the Internet.

BUS400A

Marketing & Public Relations

1 credit, 1 hour lecture

A one-semester course focusing on marketing and publicity practices critical to the success of the professional musician.

BUS400B

Marketing & Public Relations

1 credit, 1 hour lecture

A continuation of BUS400A, focusing on developing individualized marketing plans, utilizing current technologies, strategies and platforms. Prerequisites: BUS400A

BUS401

Pedagogy Techniques

1 credit, 1 hour lecture

A course focusing on pedagogy techniques and issues related to pedagogy. Guided by instructor on an individual basis, students design and present a live, short-term workshop (2 hours) on a topic of their choice to the public as part of the Jazzschool Workshop Series. Students gain hands-on teaching skills, expanding their employment options as professional musicians.

Prerequisites: senior-year standing or consent of instructor. Please note: Workshop proposals must be submitted to and approved by instructor six months prior to presentation and a minimum of six months prior to planned graduation.

SENIOR PROJECT

SEN400

Senior Project

1 credit/lab

Seniors prepare and present a 50-minute concert/project according to their particular plan of study within the Jazz Studies degree (see below). All Senior Projects are completed in conjunction with a faculty advisor.

• Jazz Studies (Instrumental/Vocal tracks)

A 50-minute concert of jazz and related styles of music open to the public. Students compose and/ or arrange repertoire, choose personnel, rehearse the band and market the concert.

Jazz Studies — concentration in Brazilian Jazz (Instrumental/Vocal tracks)

A 50-minute concert of Brazilian jazz open to the public. Students compose and/or arrange repertoire, choose personnel, rehearse the band and market the concert.

Jazz Studies — concentration in Audio Production (Instrumental track)

A release-ready multi-track recording consisting of a minimum of three selections. Emphasis on both the technical and creative aspects of the production along with market targeting. Location: Fantasy Studios.

Jazz Studies — concentration in North American Roots Music (Instrumental/ Vocal tracks)

A 50-minute concert of North American roots music open to the public. Students compose and/ or arrange repertoire, choose personnel, rehearse the band and market the concert.

DEPARTMENT OF GENERAL STUDIES

The General Studies curriculum is integral to the overall development of the aspiring jazz professional. Courses in General Studies promote broad-based cultural literacy, critical thinking and communication skills necessary to function successfully in the music world and beyond. Courses in General Studies serve to broaden perspectives and provide points of reference invaluable to the jazz professional in a global society.

The General Studies requirement comprises 30 credits and is divided into the following five areas:

Area 1. English Communication (Requirement: 6 credits)

Area 2. Arts and Humanities (Requirement: 6 credits)

Area 3. Social Sciences
(Requirement: 12 credits)

Area 4. Mathematics and

Quantitative Reasoning
(Requirement: 3 credits)

Area 5. Physical Sciences (Requirement: 3 credits)

A range of General Studies courses is offered at the California Jazz Conservatory. The CJC also accepts select General Studies requirements/ electives from any fully accredited institution.

Transfer credit fulfilling CJC General Studies requirements in English Communication (6 credits), Arts and Humanities (6 credits) and Mathematics and Quantitative Reasoning (3 credits) is evaluated and accepted on a case-by-case basis. Please note: the Social Sciences (12 credits) and Physical Sciences (3 credits) requirements are not transferable from another institution. These requirements must be fulfilled at the CJC.

AREA 1. ENGLISH COMMUNICATION

(Requirement: 6 credits)

Students are required to take a total of 6 credits in English Communication: 3 credits of English Composition and 3 credits of English Literature. The following courses fulfill the CJC English Communication General Studies requirements and are offered at the CJC:

ENGLISH COMPOSITION

ENG100

The Essay

English Composition Requirement / Elective 3 credits, 3 hours lecture

Focusing on writing style, sentence structure and grammar, a course in effective expository writing and critical thinking that covers structure and function of the essay (non-fiction prose) as a literary form. Students read exemplary essays about music, the entertainment industry, visual art and culture, and write analytical arguments, music reviews, manifestoes and revisions to gain the tools they need to express their personal perspectives, experiences and ideas.

ENG102

The Biography and Autobiography English Composition Requirement / Elective 3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A writing intensive that covers structure and function of the biography and autobiography as literary forms. Considerations include strategy, research and documentation along with an examination of the structure and conventions of writing "a life." Using key biographies and autobiographies of jazz musicians as models, students write a biography of a jazz musician of their choosing or their autobiography.

ENG103

Practical Rhetoric: Writing to Describe, Persuade, Argue English Composition Requirement / Elective 3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A course focusing on developing practical writing, reading, and critical-thinking skills by addressing the rhetoric of argument. Topics include: Aristotle's description of the various means of persuasion in The Art of Rhetoric; famous political speeches that deploy rhetorical strategies; analyses of music that makes a social commentary; how to write skillful program notes to accompany a piece of music in performance; how to critique a piece of music; and how to write autobiographically in a way that represents students' personal skills and achievements both positively and accurately.

ENGLISH LITERATURE

ENG105

Poetry of Jazz; Jazz of Poetry English Literature Requirement / Elective 3 credits, 3 hours lecture

Beginning with the lyrics of work songs, gospel and blues, and continuing through the Harlem Renaissance, pre- and post- World War II, bebop and the Beats, modern and postmodern, and the "NOW," jazz poetry has rhythmic and lyrical styles nurtured by the music and its players. This extensive range of poetic and jazz aesthetics is studied through the voices of Bessie Smith, Willie Dixon, Langston Hughes, Jack Kerouac, Michael McClure, Al Young, Michael S. Harper, Jayne Cortez, Ishmael Reed, Billy Collins, Quincy Troupe and others. In depth readings and analysis, as well as historical and musical context are emphasized and explored.

ENG110

Introduction to Shakespeare: From Plays to Works

English Literature Requirement / Elective 3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A course examining three selected Shakespeare plays and poetry such as Twelfth Night, Othello, the Sonnets, and King Lear with an emphasis on historical context from the Renaissance to the present. The shift from Shakespeare's theatre as raw commercial entertainment to its status today as preeminent drama is analogous to the evolution of jazz as early twentieth century entertainment found in brothels, bars and dance halls, to its status today as a serious art form. Working in seminar format, students consider problems of poetry, character and performance and attend a live performance of one of the plays, schedule permitting.

Students are required to take 6 credits in the area of Arts and Humanities. The following courses fulfill the CJC Arts and Humanities General Studies requirements and are offered at the CJC:

HUM100

What is Jazz?

Requirement/Elective

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A one-semester course examining jazz in all its aspects including the origins of the term, its definitions, representations and interpretations in print, photographs, film, dance and visual arts, and its various styles and genres from its beginnings in New Orleans to its current annual celebration globally on Jazz Appreciation Day. Students will survey writings on jazz from critics, fans and musicians, engage in intensive listening of representative recordings, view TV, film and documentary segments, and participate in classroom discussions of the subject.

HUM200

Introduction to Linguistics

Requirement/Elective

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A general survey of the field of linguistics and introduction to core areas such as phonetics and phonology, morphology, syntax and semantics, historical change, creolization and contact phenomena, language acquisition, pragmatics and sociology, with a wide range of data from diverse languages. Students learn the basic principles of linguistic analysis and analytical reasoning, and the skills needed to draw generalizations and find patterns to understand and explain how languages work.

HUM305

Philosophy of Jazz

Requirement/Elective

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

What is the meaning of jazz? What is the purpose of art? How do you form your artistic message within the jazz idiom? Andy Hamilton's "Aesthetics and Music" serves as a guide in addressing these profound questions while reviewing the history of music aesthetics from Plato to Adorno. Topics covered include a history of the concept of music and improvisation, and the relationship of jazz to modernism and postmodern philosophy. Students question their own expectations regarding jazz, including the relationship between art and commerce and personal motivations behind their artistic pursuits.

HUM340

Brazilian Portuguese

Requirement/Elective

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

An introduction to the Portuguese language specific to the Brazilian vernacular. Emphasis on the four basic communication skills: reading, writing, speaking and listening with particular attention given to pronunciation.

Jazz History

A four-semester course examining the musical and cultural development of jazz, from its antecedents in the musical cultures of West Africa, Western Europe and the New World, to the music that is performed internationally today. Through extensive listening, reading and discussion, students gain a solid understanding of jazz, a twentiethcentury urban dance music that has become globally celebrated as a cultural art form embodying the ideals of freedom and democracy.

HIS100A

Jazz History — The Roots of Jazz and Early Jazz, Pre-1900 - 1919

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

This course examines the influences of West African, Caribbean, South American, Asian and European music and culture on the development of jazz pre-1900, and on the early music of New Orleans that became known to the world as jazz by 1917. The course focuses on the West African conceptual approaches, practices, and cultural conventions that form the foundation of jazz, and its origins in spirituals, blues, ragtime and other African American sacred and secular music. The development of jazz is studied within the historical context of American social forces including post-bellum segregation, the industrial boom and the Great Black Migration, World War I, and the invention of the radio and sound recordings.

HIS100B

Jazz History — Style and Culture in America from 1920 - 1939

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A survey of early jazz styles, from the Jazz Age of the Prohibition era, through the reign of the swing bands and the jitterbug, to the pre-World War II modern jazz jam sessions in Harlem. The music of Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Charlie Parker and many others is studied within the contexts of the post-World War I economic boom, the Great Depression, ballrooms and big bands, the rise of sound motion pictures, American musical theater and the Great American Songbook, among other socioeconomic and cultural touchstones. Prerequisite: HIS100A

HIS200A

Jazz History — Style and Culture in America from 1940 - 1959

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

This course explores jazz as an art form, with a focus on the musical innovations of modern jazz through the beginnings of free jazz. Styles including bebop, hard bop, funk, Latin jazz, cool jazz, and other styles created by Dizzy Gillespie, Thelonious Monk, Miles Davis, Max Roach, the Modern Jazz Quartet, Art Blakey's and Horace Silver's Jazz Messengers, Ornette Coleman and many of their collaborators are examined, focusing on instrumental grouping, structural, harmonic and rhythmic creativity, and folk influences. Students draw connections between the mid-century impact of World War II, the Atomic Age and the Cold War, the hegemony of television, advertising, the burgeoning Civil Rights Movement and other historical epochs upon the evolution of jazz.

HIS200B

Jazz History — Style and Culture in America from 1960 – Present

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

This course surveys the range of idioms and subgenres of post-Coltrane jazz, particularly the evolution of free jazz with the AACM, the 1970s New York Loft Scene, jazz in Europe, the music and ideas of Wynton Marsalis juxtaposed with the electronic fusion music of Miles Davis and his collaborators, Herbie Hancock, Weather Report, Chick Corea and others, and the return of jazz to its dance origins. The steady influx of global influences from traditional and contemporary musicians from Africa, Asia, and the New World continues to infuse a diverse range of compositional styles, forms and instruments into the jazz world. Prerequisite: HIS200A

AREA 4. MATHEMATICS AND QUANTITATIVE REASONING

(Requirement: 3 credits)

Students are required to take 3 credits in the area of Mathematics and Quantitative Reasoning. The following course fulfills the CJC Mathematics and Quantitative Reasoning General Studies requirement and is offered at the CJC:

MAT300

Entrepreneurial Skills for Musicians

Requirement / Elective

3 credits, 3 hours lecture

A course designed to provide the aspiring professional musician with entrepreneurial skills critical to a successful career in the music industry. Using a systematic approach to learning, students gain an understanding of financial statement analysis, costing projects and profitability, financial planning, and tax implication. This course provides students with a solid financial foundation applicable to a wide range of music industry-related ventures. This course is offered at the CJC.

BERKELEY CITY COLLEGE COURSES

The following suggested courses also fulfill CJC's Mathematics and Quantitative Reasoning General Studies requirement and have been approved for transfer from Berkeley City College. Please note: Additional courses of interest may be approved on a case-by-case basis. Students are required to take 3 credits in the area of Physical Sciences. SCI300 fulfills the CJC Physical Sciences General Studies requirements and is offered at the CJC. Please note: The Physical Sciences General Studies requirement is not transferable from another institution. This requirement must be fulfilled at the CJC.

SCI300

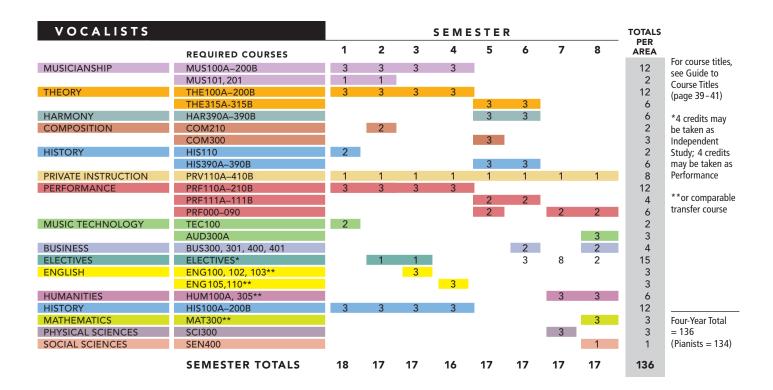

Physics of Sound and Music

3 credits, 3 hours lecture/lab

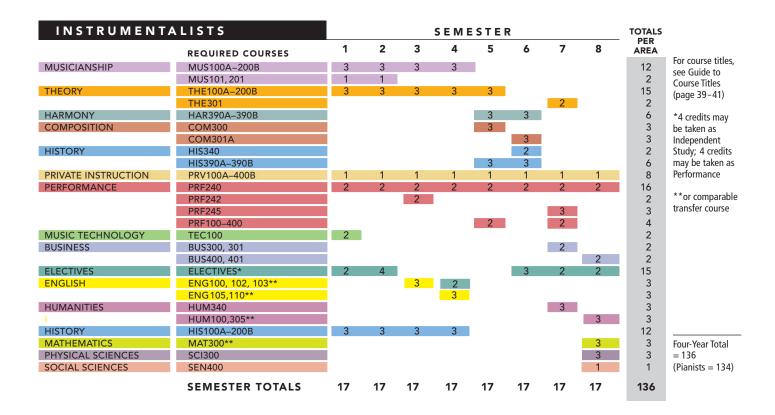

An exploration of the mechanics and perception of music — from the energy that excites the vibrating object and the space through which its waves propagate, to the human ear and brain that experience it as music and reshape it through design. Topics include: wave properties; sound production and timbre; acoustics and psychoacoustics; pitch, tuning and temperament; and music technology. Through an understanding of music from a scientific perspective, students work toward expanding and building on their experience and sensibilities as musicians. While incorporating some basic mathematics, this course focuses primarily on a conceptual understanding of complex phenomena.

ABOUT THE CJC

VISION

The California Jazz Conservatory aspires to be an internationally recognized preeminent music conservatory dedicated to the study and performance of jazz and related styles of music from throughout the world. The institution educates future generations to sustain the jazz art form.

MISSION

The California Jazz Conservatory is a nationally accredited music conservatory providing a dynamic community of students, artists, educators, scholars and audiences with a forum to study, perform, teach, research, appreciate and enjoy jazz and related styles of music from throughout the world. Comprising two distinct education programs — the California Jazz Conservatory, a postsecondary degree-granting program, and the Jazzschool, a non-degree-granting community education program — the institution honors the contributions of past masters and promotes artistic innovation, bringing together a diverse music community to develop practical skills, acquire artistic sensibility, realize creative potential and find artistic voice.

• The California Jazz Conservatory

The California Jazz Conservatory is dedicated to the study and performance of jazz and related styles of music from throughout the world, fostering the development of the aspiring professional jazz musician and building audiences to sustain the jazz art form. With world-class artists and educators, the California Jazz Conservatory integrates progressive education programs with public performance opportunities to prepare future generations for a fulfilling life in jazz.

The Jazzschool

A community music school, the Jazzschool fosters the development of the aspiring jazz musician of all ages and levels and builds audiences to sustain the jazz art form through a non-degree-granting education program integrating classes, short-term workshops, artists-in-residency, and public performance opportunities.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

The following five goals and corresponding objectives serve to guide the CJC:

- 1. Promoting Excellence in EducationThe CJC strives to promote excellence in music scholarship and performance by:
- Establishing and maintaining the highest artistic and academic standards and promoting a strong work ethic.
- Providing an educational forum on par with nationally-ranked institutions offering programs in jazz studies.
- Attracting and retaining a world-class faculty and inspired student body.
- Providing a comprehensive curriculum and supportive environment to develop artistic sensibility and musicological insight relevant to the aspiring jazz professional and the jazz enthusiast.
- Providing a forum to exercise freedom of expression both individually and as a member of a group in the democratically-structured paradigm of the jazz ensemble.
- Maintaining a state-of-the-art, aesthetically pleasing, one-stop-shopping-for-jazz facility, housing classrooms, practice rooms, intimate performance space, book and record store, and cafè.

- 2. Fostering High Ethical StandardsThe CJC strives to foster high ethical standards by:
- Providing an environment that promotes the development of well-balanced, conscientious, compassionate, forward-looking individuals who will contribute to a just society.
- 3. Honoring Historical and Cultural HeritageThe CJC strives to honor the historical and cultural heritage of the jazz canon by:
- Recognizing the historical and multicultural origins of jazz.
- Highlighting the prominent role the jazz art form has played in shaping American history and culture.
- Offering curricula designed to inform and develop an appreciation of the relationship between jazz and American culture and the global jazz diaspora.
- 4. Nurturing Diversity in All of its FormsThe CJC strives to create a diverse, all-inclusive, close-knit community by:
- Seeking and embracing the cultural richness of a diverse constituency of students, faculty, staff and greater music community.

- Implementing targeted community outreach efforts and providing scholarship opportunities to deserving students in need of financial assistance.
- Providing a nurturing environment for students, teachers, scholars and artists in the jazz field.
- Providing an inviting setting for family, friends, and the greater music community to celebrate students' accomplishments and enjoy listening to jazz in its many forms.

5. Developing Collaborations

The CJC strives to build relationships and create collaborations with artistic and educational constituencies by:

- Providing access to local, national and global perspectives and new and meaningful educational and artistic resources.
- Creating opportunities for student and faculty exchanges with music education programs locally, nationally and internationally.

To be a jazz freedom fighter is to attempt to galvanize and energize world-weary people into forms of organization with accountable leadership that promote critical exchange and broad reflection. The interplay of individuality and unity is not one of uniformity and unanimity imposed from above but rather of conflict among diverse groupings that reach a dynamic consensus subject to questioning and criticism. As with a soloist in a jazz quartet, quintet or band, individuality is promoted in order to sustain and increase the creative tension with the group — a tension that yields higher levels of performance to achieve the aim of the collective project.

— Cornel West, "Race Matters"

State Licensure

The California Jazz Conservatory is a private institution approved to operate by the Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education in the State of California as set forth in the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 (CEC) and Title 5, Division 7.5 of the California Code of Regulations (CCR). The Act is administered by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, under the Department of Consumer Affairs. Bureau approval means the institution is in compliance with and meets the minimum standards pursuant to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Bankruptcy Disclosure: the CJC has never filed a bankruptcy petition, operated as a debtor in possession, or had a bankruptcy petition filed against it.

Accreditation

The California Jazz Conservatory is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM). NASM is recognized by the United States Department of Education.

"NASM, founded in 1924, is an organization of schools, conservatories, colleges and universities with approximately 644 accredited institutional members. It establishes national standards for undergraduate and graduate degrees and other credentials." nasm.arts-accredit.org

Please note: This program does not lead to positions in a profession, occupation, trade, or career field requiring licensure in the State of California.

Facilities and Student Services

The California Jazz Conservatory is housed in two aesthetically pleasing, custom-designed facilities on Addison Street in the Downtown Berkeley Arts District, just across the street from one another.

At 2087 Addison Street, students have access to fully equipped classrooms (with pianos, drum sets, amplifiers and sound systems), practice rooms, a bookstore and an intimate performance space. The Jazzcaffè serves an assortment of panini, soups, salads, sweet breads and espresso drinks.

At 2040 Addison Street, our new campus expansion, Fiddler Annex, houses additional classrooms, practice rooms, a listening library, a 100-seat performance space and cafè, Jazzcaffè 2040.

All CJC class sessions are held at 2087 and 2040 Addison Street, Berkeley, California. The Fantasy Studios Internship Program is held at 2600 Tenth Street, Berkeley, California.

Library

Students have access to an extensive music collection housed in the Art and Music Department at the Berkeley Public Library and the Jean Gray Hargrove Music Library on the University of California, Berkeley campus, both located within walking distance of the CJC. Students will be given assistance with obtaining library cards to both libraries.

The Art and Music Department at the Berkeley Public

Library. The scope of the music collection at the Art and Music Department runs from Albinoni to Zouk — on compact disc, vinyl and score. The rich jazz collection ranges from reissues of vintage recordings to contemporary offerings from the next generation of jazz masters. Music from around the globe is available in the audio collection in all formats.

The CD collection, started in September 1985, now includes over 14,000 titles. The Art and Music Department music collection also includes roughly 6,000 vinyl records. Classical, opera, jazz, world, and popular music are represented. Printed music scores, a range of music biographies and books on music theory and performance are readily available.

The Art and Music Department subscribes to over forty periodicals covering a variety of musical genres, specific instruments, and recorded sound. Their periodical collection also includes the impressive Greenwood Press jazz periodicals collection, a microfilm archive of the historical jazz periodical, containing reviews and events dating back to the 1920s.

Electronic resources available through the Berkeley Public Library website allow patrons to listen online to recordings of classical and contemporary music from around the world.

The Art and Music Department can be found on the 5th floor of the Berkeley Public Library and is open Mondays, 12pm – 8pm; Tuesdays, 10am–8pm; Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, 10am–6pm; and Sundays, 1pm–5pm. Visit berkeleypubliclibrary.org for a complete schedule of holidays.

Students may borrow up to 50 items at any given time with their Berkeley Public Library card. Those items not available onsite may be acquired through Link+.

Jean Gray Hargrove Music Library. Founded in 1947 as a branch of the University Library, the Music Library was located on the second floor of Morrison Hall from 1957 until July 6, 2004, when the Jean Gray Hargrove Music Library opened to the public. Its collections today contain some 180,000 volumes of books and printed music, 50,000 sound and video recordings, and 30,000 microforms in addition to extensive special holdings of manuscripts, rare materials, and archives. The collection serves the diverse teaching and research needs of the UC Berkeley Department of Music, which offers a general undergraduate major and graduate programs in musicology, ethnomusicology, and composition, as well as embracing a variety of performance activities.

The majority of materials in the Hargrove Music Library — with the exception of sound and video recordings, periodicals, microforms, and special collections — circulate for use outside the library. Borrowing materials requires a current UC Berkeley Library card. Borrowers must have a current library card issued by the Privileges Desk at Doe Library. Visitors are welcome to use collections on-site.

Record Keeping

The California Jazz Conservatory Registrar and Custodian of Records maintains a secure file for each student that contains pertinent information including but not limited to: the Application for Admission; transcripts from the CJC and other institutions (including verification of high school completion or the equivalency); documents evidencing a student's prior experiential learning; class scheduling and registration; degree requirements and progress reports; attendance; grading; documents relating to tuition, financial assistance and scholarships; records of the dates of enrollment, withdrawal, leaves of absence, suspension and/or dismissal from the institution and graduation; copies of any official advisory notices or warnings regarding the student's progress; results of juries or other examinations; copies of recordings programs, awards or other accomplishments of note; and/or evaluations, suggestions and/or complaints. The CJC shall maintain pertinent student records for a period of at least 5 years from the student's date of completion or withdrawal. Transcripts documenting the completion of the degree will be maintained permanently.

Student records are strictly confidential. A student wishing to disclose their educational record to any other party must first submit written proof of authorization to the Registrar and Custodian of Records. Authorization may be revised at any time throughout a student's tenure at the CJC.

Berkeley City College

Located at 2050 Center Street, just one block from the CJC, Berkeley City College offers a wide range of courses that fulfill CJC General Studies requirements in English (6 credits), Humanities (6 credits), Mathematics (3 credits), and Elective requirements (5 credits).

See Department of General Studies for General Studies courses approved for transfer from Berkeley City College. Elective courses must be degree-relevant and are accepted for transfer on a by-approval basis by the Dean of Instruction. For Berkeley City College course descriptions and class schedules, please visit berkeleycitycollege.edu/wp/programs/class-schedules-and-catalogs/.

The California Jazz Conservatory has not entered into a formal articulation or transfer agreement with Berkeley City College, or any other college or university, at this time.

GENERAL INFORMATION

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Both incoming freshmen and transfer students are accepted into the CJC based on the following:

- A completed application form including a personal statement outlining your past accomplishments, future objectives and how and why you believe the CJC will help you realize them.
- 2. An official high school transcript. All students must have a satisfactory academic record and have earned an overall GPA of 2.0 or higher to be admitted to the CJC. Photocopies are not accepted. Please note: the CJC does not accept ability-to-benefit students.
- Official college transcript(s) if applicable. Please Note: all students must have a satisfactory academic record and have earned an overall GPA of 2.0 or higher to be admitted to the CJC. Photocopies are not accepted.
- Two original letters of recommendation, at least one of which is from a professional musician and/or music educator familiar with your work and professional objectives. Photocopies are not accepted.
- A live audition. Students living more than 150 miles from the CJC may substitute a DVD of their playing in lieu of a live audition. (See Auditions, Audition Requirements and Placement Examinations, next section.)
- Results of the Ear Training and Sight Singing and Jazz Theory and Improvisation Placement Exams. (See Auditions, Audition Requirements and Placement Examinations, next section.)

Please note: To be accepted into the Jazz Studies degree program, students are expected to have:

- 1. A basic knowledge of music theory including:
 - Major and minor scales and key signatures in both treble and bass clefs
 - Major, minor, diminished and augmented triads
 - Major, dominant and minor seventh chords

AND

- 2. Basic musicianship skills including:
 - The ability to identify simple and compound intervals and seventh chords by ear
 - The ability to take simple melodic and rhythmic dictation
 - The ability to sight sing a simple melodic line
- 7. For international students, an internet-based TOEFL (iBT) score. All instruction at the CJC occurs in English. A high level of English proficiency is required for admission. All non-native speakers must submit an official score report from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) prior to enrolling. Applicants who have completed a 4-year degree program at an English-speaking college or university may request TOEFL exemption. The CJC accepts internet-based TOEFL (iBT) scores only. Please do not submit paper-based TOEFL (pBT) scores. Applicants must receive a score of 75 or higher to be admitted into the CJC. TOEFL scores are valid for two years after the test date and there is no limit to the number of times the test may be taken.

To apply, visit cjc.edu/apply. Please send all supporting materials including transcripts and letters of recommendation. For those students living more than 150 miles from the CJC, please include samples of your playing. Send all material — along with a non-refundable $100 Application Fee — to:

California Jazz Conservatory Office of Admission 2087 Addison Street Berkeley, CA 94704

Auditions

All students applying for admission to the CJC must audition prior to acceptance. Auditions are held on-site. A live audition is required for all students living locally; pre-recorded performance samples on a DVD are accepted in lieu of a live audition for students living more than 150 miles from the CJC. After your completed application has been received, the Registrar will contact you to schedule your audition.

Auditions are approximately 30 minutes in length and may be scheduled throughout the academic year. Students must be prepared to perform and improvise over the following tunes of their choice: a medium-tempo 12-bar blues; a ballad; a Latin tune; and an up-tempo jazz tune. They will also be given a short selection to sight-read.

Placement Examinations

All students applying for admission to the CJC must take two placement examinations: Musicianship (Ear Training and Sight Singing), and Jazz Theory and Improvisation. Placement exams are not graded: they serve to confirm basic required knowledge and skills, and determine appropriate placement appropriate placement in the Musicianship and Jazz Theory series. Placement examinations are administered directly following the audition. The Musicianship placement exam is approximately 30 minutes in length; the Jazz Theory and Improvisation placement exam is one hour in length.

Tuition and Supplemental Fees

• Tuition — Instrumentalists

Full-Time (12 credits and above / semester): $9,100 (including 1 credit of Private Instruction; not including Individual Tutorial or Trio Instruction)

Part-Time (11 credits or fewer / semester): $685 / credit (not including 1 credit of Private Instruction/Individual Tutorial or Trio Instruction)

Private Instruction / Individual Tutorial: $1,575 / credit

Trio Instruction: $1,050 / credit

• Tuition — Vocalists

Full-Time (12 credits and above / semester): $9,400 (including Private Instruction; not including Individual Tutorial or Trio Instruction)

Part-Time (11 credits or fewer / semester): $685 / credit (not including 1 credit of Private Instruction/Individual Tutorial or Trio Instruction)

Private Instruction / Individual Tutorial: $1,575 / credit

Trio Ensembles: $1,050 / credit

Tuition is due at the time of registration.

(See registration dates listed in the Academic Calendar.) Students registering after the registration period are subject to a late registration fee of $50. Students must either have paid tuition and fees in full, have been accepted for financial aid, or have created an in-house semester-long payment plan prior to the first day of instruction to attend classes. Students with overdue tuition may not register for succeeding semesters. Seniors with outstanding tuition will be prohibited from taking part in their graduation ceremony and will not be issued their transcript.

In-House Payment Plan — The CJC offers students the option of paying their tuition on a monthly basis for a fee of $50/semester. The CJC In-House Payment Plan must be created at the time of registration each semester. For fall semester, tuition is divided up into five equal payments due on the first of the month for months August–December; for spring semester tuition is divided up into five equal payments due on the first of the month for months January–May. A late fee of $25 will be charged for payments submitted after the first of each month. Note: the current semester's tuition must be paid in full before a student may register for the subsequent semester. To create a payment plan, contact the Registrar at registrar@cjc.edu.

Students with an outstanding balance who have not yet been accepted for financial aid or created a payment plan by the first day of instruction will be dropped from the program. Students with overdue tuition may not register for succeeding semesters. Seniors with outstanding tuition will be prohibited from taking part in their graduation ceremony and will not be issued their transcript.

Tuition at the California Jazz Conservatory is subject to increase by approximately 4% per year.

Application Fee

Students must pay a one-time, non-refundable Application Fee of $100. The Application Fee is submitted along with the Application for Admission.

• Registration Fee

A non-refundable Registration Fee of $50 is charged per semester. Students registering after the deadline will be charged a Late Registration Fee of $50 (please see Academic Calendar 2017 – 2018 on the inside front cover for registration deadlines).

• Enrollment Deposit

New students are required to pay a non-refundable Enrollment Deposit of $100 at the time of their acceptance into the program. Returning students are required to pay a non-refundable Enrollment Deposit of $200 on or before June 1, prior to each fall semester, and on or before December 1, prior to each spring semester. The Enrollment Deposit is credited to students' tuition for the upcoming semester. A late fee of $100 per month will apply to an Enrollment Deposit made after the due date.

• Course Materials

Students should expect to pay approximately $300 for texts and supporting course materials per semester.

• Computer Requirements

Instruction at the CJC utilizes many modern technologies and internet resources, and all students are expected to own or have access to a computer running Mac OS 10.7 or Windows 7 at minimum with high-speed internet access for research, communication and coursework. For music technology courses, a laptop with a recent version of Sibelius and Pro Tools is required to participate. If purchasing a computer and software specifically for this program, we recommend a Macintosh laptop, a standard word processing suite such as Microsoft Office or OpenOffice, and the Sibelius music notation program, for maximum compatibility with the material and software being taught.

Library Cards

California residents are entitled to a Berkeley Public Library card. There is a $100 annual fee for a library card for the Jean Gray Hargrove Library at UC Berkeley.

• Challenge Examinations

The fee for Challenge Examinations (testing out of a course) is $275 per course.

• Transcripts

Official transcripts are issued for a fee of $10 per transcript. Unofficial transcripts are free of charge. To request a transcript, please contact the Registrar at registrar @cjc.edu.

• Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF):

Students are required to pay the non-refundable state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) of $0.00 per every $1,000 of tuition each semester. California law requires that upon enrollment a fee be assessed relative to the cost of tuition. These fees support the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF), a special fund established by the California Legislature to reimburse students who might otherwise experience a financial loss as a result of untimely school closure. Institutional participation is mandatory.

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

- 1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
- 2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

- 1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
- 2. Your total charges are paid by a third-party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency programs attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

- 1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
- 2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
- 3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
- 4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act or this Division within 30 days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
- 5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

Private Instruction

Students are required to take fifteen one-hour private lessons per semester. Please see p. 51 for a list of approved private instruction faculty. The cost of one credit of private instruction is included in full-time tuition; the rate for private instruction for part-time students is $1,575 per credit and includes the cost of CJC room rental. Private lessons are scheduled on a to-be-arranged basis between student and teacher. All fifteen hours of private instruction must be completed within the semester in which the student is enrolled.

Scholarships

The CJC awards unsolicited partial scholarships on occasion to qualified students based on a combination of artistic merit, financial need and the particular needs of the program at the time of inquiry. Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0, and earn a C or higher in all classes, to remain eligible for scholarships. Note: students receiving a scholarship who earn a non-passing grade of C- or lower in any required courses are responsible for retaking those courses at their own expense.

The following scholarships are awarded to CJC students who demonstrate a combination of artistic promise, commitment to excellence, and financial need on an as-available basis:

- The Jamey Aebersold Scholarship
 Established in honor of Jamey Aebersold, one of the world's leaders in jazz education and performance, the Jamey Aebersold Scholarship provides financial support for promising CJC students.
- The William E. Robinson Scholarship
 The William E. Robinson Scholarship is awarded to a CJC student who demonstrates commitment to excellence in the fields of jazz and related styles of music.
- The Sy Grossman Family Scholarship
 A scholarship fund created in loving memory of CJC board member, jazz pianist and dear friend Seymour
 Grossman
- East Bay Center for the Performing Arts Scholarship
 A scholarship established by the California Jazz
 Conservatory in conjunction with East Bay Center for the Performing Arts to provide graduates of the Young Artist Diploma Program with partial scholar ships to attend the California Jazz Conservatory degree program in Jazz Studies.

Work-Study

The California Jazz Conservatory offers work-study opportunities on an as-available basis. Work-study positions may include accompaniment, light office work, bookstore staffing and more. Please contact the Dean of Instruction regarding availability of work-study positions.

Code of Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is central to forwarding the mission, goals and objectives of the California Jazz Conservatory. The CJC is committed to providing an environment conducive to all aspects of teaching and learning. CJC students are held to the highest moral and ethical standards and are obligated to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the principles as stated in the Code of Academic Integrity as follows:

The Code of Academic Integrity prohibits students from engaging in any acts of academic dishonesty whatsoever including but not limited to: plagiarizing; lying; cheating; and/or fraud. Under the Code of Academic Integrity:

Plagiarizing is defined as taking ownership of the work or idea of another as one's own without crediting the source.

Lying is defined as making a false statement which is intended to deceive.

Cheating is defined as benefitting from acting dishonestly or unfairly.

Fraud is defined as serving as an impostor for personal gain.

All alleged infractions of the Code of Academic Integrity should be reported to the Dean of Instruction in writing. The Dean of Instruction, together with the student's instructor, will thoroughly review the allegations for their veracity, and based on their findings, will determine the appropriate action. Proof of violation of the Code of Academic Integrity will result in either reprimand and a loss of credit for the assignment, loss of credit for the course, suspension for one year, or permanent dismissal, depending on the seriousness of the offense. Students found in violation must meet with the Dean of Instruction in person at which time they will be given a written notice citing the infraction and consequences of the offense. Any academic and/or financial penalties will apply as of that date.

Please note: In the case of suspension, a student is required to reapply for admission into the program as a new student (see under Admission Requirements). In the case of dismissal, a student may not reapply for admission into the program. Violation of the Code of Academic Integrity that results in either suspension or dismissal will be permanently attached to a student's transcript.

Code of Conduct

The California Jazz Conservatory is committed to providing our collegiate community of students, faculty and staff with an environment conducive to the freedom to teach and to learn — a setting that promotes intellectual freedom, nurtures individual creativity and self-expression and is free from discrimination of any kind.

Violations of the Student Code of Conduct include but are not limited to the following on-campus acts:

- Harassment, whether verbal, physical or written (including electronic communications), which is directed at an individual and/or member of a protected class, that extends beyond the bounds of protected free speech
- Use or sale of illegal drugs
- Alcohol intoxication
- · Smoking within 50 feet of campus
- Disorderly conduct of any kind
- Non-consensual physical contact of a sexual nature
- Damaging or defacing CJC property or resources
- Theft or attempted theft
- · Possession of weaponry of any kind

All alleged infractions of the Code of Conduct should be reported to the Dean of Instruction in writing. The Dean of Instruction, together with the student's instructor, will thoroughly review the allegations for their veracity, and based on their findings, will determine the appropriate action. Proof of violation of any aspect of the Code of Conduct will result in either reprimand, probation for the remainder of the semester and subsequent semester, suspension for one year, or permanent dismissal, depending on the seriousness of the offense. Students found in violation must meet with the Dean of Instruction in person at which time they will be given a written notice citing the infraction and consequences of the offense. Please note: Academic and financial penalties (see under Cancellations, Withdrawals and Refunds and Adding, Dropping and Withdrawing from Courses) will apply as of the date of the written notice. Please note: In the case of suspension, a student is required to reapply for admission into the program as a new student (see under Admission Requirements). In the case of dismissal, a student may not reapply for admission into the program. Violation of the Student Code of Conduct that results in either suspension or dismissal will be permanently attached to a student's transcript.

Students enrolled in the CJC are held to the highest standards of conduct and must obey federal, state and local laws.

Academic Standing

Undergraduate students are classified as either Lower or Upper Division.

Lower Division students include:

Freshman — Students who have completed 0-34 credits of passing work.

Sophomore — Students who have completed 35-68 credits of passing work and have passed their freshman jury.

Upper Division students include:

Junior — Students who have completed 69 – 102 credits of passing work and have passed their sophomore jury.

Senior — Students who have completed 103 – 136 credits of passing work and have passed their junior jury.

Academic Probation, Suspension and Dismissal

All students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher to remain in good academic standing (see Grading).

Academic Probation — A student whose cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0 will be placed on academic probation until the end of the semester after his/her cumulative GPA returns to 2.0 or above. A student must earn a semester grade point average of a minimum of 2.0 each semester while on academic probation.

Academic Suspension — A student on academic probation whose current semester grade point average falls below 2.0 will be suspended for one year and must reapply for admission into the program as a new student (see under Admission Requirements).

Academic Dismissal — A student who is suspended for the second time will be dismissed and may not reapply for admission into the program.

Please note: Students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 to be eligible for payment plans or scholarship.

Housing

The CJC is located within easy walking distance of a number of student-friendly apartment complexes in downtown Berkeley and the nearby vicinity and is also easily accessible by BART for students who wish to live outside of the city. There are no living accommodations available through the California Jazz Conservatory at this time. The CJC is not responsible for finding or assisting a student in finding housing. CJC students are responsible for making arrangements for their own housing. As of January 2016, average monthly apartment rent in Berkeley ranged from $1,945 for a studio; $2,200 for a one-bedroom; and $3,175 for a two-bedroom apartment.

International Students

The California Jazz Conservatory is authorized to issue the F-1 student visa. For information on how to obtain the F-1 student visa, please visit https://www.ice.gov/sevis.

The CJC does not vouch for student status or any associated charges.

Please note: International students are required to submit an application along with a high school transcript, college transcripts (if applicable), two letters of recommendation, a TOEFL score (see under 7. on page 9), and a playing sample in the form of a DVD. International students are also required to do a live audition and take the Ear Training and Sight Singing and Jazz Theory and Improvisation Placement Exams upon their arrival at the CJC.

FINANCIAL AID

The California Jazz Conservatory is committed to assisting each and every student with the cost of covering their tuition and living expenses. The following is an overview of the various sources of financial aid available to CJC students. Sources include federal financial aid (grants, loans and work-study), the CJC in-house payment plan, CJC scholarships and additional resources for parents.

FEDERAL SOURCES OF FINANCIAL AID (GRANTS, LOANS AND WORK STUDY)

Grants

A grant is a financial award that does not have to be repaid. The following grants are available through the US Department of Education (USDE):

• Federal Pell Grants

For the 2017–2018 Award Year, the projected maximum Federal Pell Grant amount is $5,920. Awards are need-based and will vary based on the student's EFC and the student's enrollment status (see Enrollment Definitions below). Note: students who are enrolled less than half-time may be eligible for Pell Grants.

Enrollment Definitions (per semester)

Full-time enrollment: 12 credits or more
Three-quarter enrollment: 9–11 credits
Half-time enrollment: 6–8 credits

Less than half-time

enrollment: 1–5 credits

Federal Supplemental Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

The Supplemental Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) is for those students who demonstrate exceptional financial need. Funds are extremely limited; Federal Pell Grant recipients take priority. Award amounts vary between $100 – $250 per academic year.

Loans

A loan is a financial award that must be repaid. The following loans are available through the USDE:

• Federal Direct Loans

There are two types of Federal Direct Loan Programs: subsidized and unsubsidized.

Subsidized Direct Loan Program — Students with calculated financial need may borrow under the Subsidized Direct Loan Program. Under the Subsidized Direct Loan Program, the federal government pays the interest on the loan while students are in school and during their grace period. Note 1: students must be enrolled at least half-time to be eligible for the Subsidized Direct Loan Program. Note 2: A student's EFC is taken into consideration when determining his/her eligibility for a Subsidized Direct Loan.

Unsubsidized Direct Loan Program — Students with no calculated financial need may borrow under the Unsubsidized Direct Loan Program. The interest rate is the same, but unlike the Subsidized Direct Loan Program, the government does not pay the interest on the loan. Students have the option of paying the interest while in school, or having it added to their principal when they graduate or cease being enrolled on at least a half-time basis. Note 1: Students must be enrolled at least half-time to be eligible for the Unsubsidized Direct Loan Program. Note 2: A student's EFC is not taken into consideration when determining his/her eligibility for an Unsubsidized Direct Loan; however, any other aid received is a consideration (for example, if the student is eligible to receive a Subsidized Direct Loan or a Pell Grant).

The following tables are the maximum amounts dependent and independent students can borrow each year.

Dependent undergraduates (excluding dependent students whose parents are ineligible for PLUS)

	Credits completed	Subsidized	Total (subsidized & unsubsidized
Freshman	0 – 33	$3,500	$5,500
Sophomore	34 – 67	$4,500	$6,500
Junior and Beyond	68 +	$5,500	$7,500

Independent undergraduates (including dependent students whose parents are ineligible for PLUS (see below)

	Credits completed	Subsidized	Total (subsidized & unsubsidized
Freshman Sophomore	0 – 33 34 – 67	$3,500 $4,500	$9,500 $10,500
Junior and Beyond	68 +	$5,500	$12,500

After reviewing the FAFSA, the Financial Aid Office determines the maximum amount that a student can borrow each year based on:

EFC (Expected Family Contribution);

Dependency status (whether they are considered dependent or independent according to the student's FAFSA);

Grade level at the beginning of the loan period.

Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) — The PLUS program allows qualified parents to borrow funds to help support their dependent children while their son/daughter is attending college. Unlike the Subsidized and Unsubsidized Direct Loans, the parent must pass a credit check; if the parent does not pass the credit check they may either appeal or provide a co-signer for the loan.

The EFC is not used in calculating PLUS eligibility (i.e., PLUS can replace the EFC), and the total amount a parent can borrow may not exceed the student's Cost of Attendance (COA) minus all other aid received.

A dependent student whose parent is ineligible for a PLUS loan may be eligible for increased unsubsidized loans as shown above.

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount any refund. If a student has received federal student financial aid program funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

Loans Fees

At each disbursement the Department of Education deducts a fee. The loan fee for Direct Loans (Subsidized and Unsubsidized) is 1.069% for loans on or after 10/1/16 and before 10/1/17; the fee for the PLUS loan is 4.276% for loans on or after 10/1/16 and before 10/1/17.

Federal Work-Study (FWS)

Federal Work-Study (FWS) is money that is earned while attending school and that does not have to be repaid. FWS is a form of student employment — a need-based financial aid award that allows students to work on campus part-time. It is not a grant (because students must work to earn it), and it is not a loan (because students do not have to repay it).

In order to receive FWS, students must complete the FAFSA and have FWS eligibility. Federal funding is limited. FWS funds are distributed on an as-available basis. Students can only apply for FWS positions if they have this as part of their financial aid package. They are paid an hourly wage on a bi-weekly basis for hours worked, and their paycheck will be sent directly to them instead of applied to their bill. Note: students who are awarded FWS must complete all of the forms listed in the FWS Guidelines.

CJC Scholarships

The CJC awards partial scholarships on an as- available basis to qualified students based on a combination of:

- Artistic merit
- Financial need
- The particular instrumental/vocal needs of the program at the time of inquiry

Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0, and earn the grade of C or higher in all classes, to remain eligible for scholarships. Note: Students receiving a scholarship who earn a non-passing grade of C- or lower in any required course(s) are responsible for retaking those courses at their own expense.

To inquire about availability of CJC scholarships, please contact the Registrar at registrar@cjc.edu.

Additional Resources for Parents

Parents and students can use a variety of resources to cover their Educational Expenses such as:

- PLUS Loans (dependent students only).
- Student's Financial Aid Package (including loans, grants, and Federal Work Study). Please communicate with your son/daughter.

- The CJC In-House Payment Plan
- Outside scholarships
- Tax-free accounts and tax benefits plans (Coverdell and 529 Plans)
- Federal veterans benefits
- Tuition benefit plans set up by employers or agencies to help students/parents pay for college costs.

The CJC offers students the option of paying their tuition on a monthly basis for an administrative fee of $50/ semester. Payment plans must be created at the time of registration. For fall semester, tuition is divided up into five equal payments due on the first of the month for months August-December; for spring semester, tuition is divided up into five equal payments due on the first of the month for months January-May. A late fee of $25 will be charged for payments submitted after the first of each month. Note: the current semester's tuition must be paid in full before a student may register for the subsequent semester. To create a CJC In-House Payment Plan, please contact the Registrar at registrar@cjc.edu.

HOW TO APPLY FOR FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID

Obtaining a Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID

The first step in applying for Federal financial aid is to obtain an FSA ID. Note: prior to May 2015, this was known as a PIN. Students who have a PIN must now obtain a new FSA ID. The website for creating a new FSA ID is https://fsaid.ed.gov.

The FSA ID consists of a username and password that students must use to log in to certain U.S. Department of Education (ED) websites. The FSA ID enables students to access their personal information on ED websites such as the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

The FSA ID is used to sign legally binding documents electronically. It has the same legal status as a written signature. Besides being used for completing the FAFSA, students can also use their FSA ID for signing their Master Promissory Note (MPN) and for completing Loan Entrance Counseling (a requirement for loan borrowers).

Note: parents of dependent students (those students living at home) will need their own FSA ID if they want to sign their son's or daughter's FAFSA electronically. If parents have more than one child attending college, they can use the same FSA ID to sign all applications.

Completing the FAFSA

To apply for federal student aid, students must complete the FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students will need to include the CJC School Code: 042376. The school code authorizes the ED to send students' FAFSA information to the CJC.

When completing the FAFSA, students (and their parents if students are dependent) will be asked to provide federal tax return information for the previous tax year. The easiest (and recommended) way to do this is to allow the FAFSA website to access their IRS tax return by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT). This step links their FAFSA to the appropriate federal tax return and enters the information for them.

Verification

Some students will be selected by the Department of Education to have their information "verified" by the CJC Financial Aid Office. The CJC will send those students who are selected for verification the appropriate form that they will need to return (along with any supporting documentation) within 30 days of the date of the notice. Typically, items that may require verification include income information, household members, and number in college. Note: If students used the IRS DRT and did not make any changes, they most likely will not have to provide any backup documents. There may be other items requiring verification, but these are the most common.

The CJC Financial Aid Office requires that students complete the verification process before their loans are certified (approved) and sent to the ED.

HOW FINANCIAL AID IS DETERMINED

Financial aid awards are based on demonstrated financial need, which is the difference between the family's Expected Family Contribution (EFC) plus the student's own resources (EFC and any other financial aid), and the allowable educational expenses or Cost of Attendance (COA).

The USDE determines the EFC, which is based on the information submitted on the student's FAFSA. If there are unusual or extenuating circumstances, the Financial Aid Office may make adjustments based on adequate documentation, on a case-by-case basis.

The CJC Financial Aid Office creates an annual budget for each student based on the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees
- Room & Board
- Transportation
- Books & Supplies
- Loan Fees
- Personal/Miscellaneous Expenses

If there are unusual expenses (for example, unusual medical expenses, child care, etc.), the Financial Aid Office can, with adequate documentation, make adjustments to an individual student's budget. Note: again, this can only be done on a case-by-case basis.

The Financial Aid Office calculates budgets for both dependent students (those students living at home) and for independent students (those students not living at home). This information is initially derived from the student's FAFSA.

Note: A student's total financial aid may not exceed the student's COA.

STUDENT BUDGETS

Tuition and Fees

Tuition for the 2017–2018 academic year is as follows:

- Application fee (a one-time fee, new students only): $100
- Registration fee (all students): $50 / semester
- Full-time students (taking 12 or more credits per semester): $9100, instrumentalists; $9400, vocalists
- Part-time students (taking 11 or fewer credits per semester): $685 / credit
- Private instruction/Individual Tutorial: $1,575 per credit
- Trio ensembles: $1,050 per credit

The Financial Aid Offer Letter

After the CJC Financial Aid Office receives a student's FAFSA, it will determine the maximum eligibility for financial aid and send them a Financial Aid Offer Letter. The Offer Letter will list what types of financial aid are available to students. Students have the option of either accepting or declining any of the awards listed or even requesting a lower amount in loans if they choose. Students must then print a copy, sign it and return it to the CJC Financial Aid Office before their financial aid can be finalized.

Note: Although loans will not be certified by the CJC Financial Aid Office until the student's award letter has been signed and returned (and, if selected, verification completed), students will still be able to decline or reduce their loan amounts up to 14 days after the disbursements have been received by the CJC and posted to their student account. When the CJC receives the loan funds, the business office will send students an email notification of the amounts and date posted, with information on how to change their loan amounts.

Loan Entrance Counseling

Students who are first time loan borrowers at the California Jazz Conservatory must complete Loan Entrance Counseling at studentloans.gov.

Master Promissory Note

If students have never had a student loan before (or within the last 10 years) and wish to accept one, they must complete the Master Promissory Note (MPN) at studentloans.gov.

The following table shows California Jazz Conservatory tuition and fees for the 2017–2018 academic year for a continuing full-time instrumental student taking 12–18 credits per semester. Note: vocalists add $300/semester.

Category	Fall Semester	Spring Semester	Annual Total
Tuition	$9,100	$9,100	$18,200
Reg. Fee	$50	$50	$100
Total	$9,150	$9,150	$18,300

Non-CJC Expense Estimates for Students — For the purposes of determining eligibility for Federal Financial Aid, the Financial Aid Office uses the following estimates based on California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) Student Expense Budgets for 2017–2018. Note: these costs are estimates only.

	With Parents		Off Campu	ıs Housing
Category	Semester	Annual	Semester	Annual
Books & Supplies	$896	$1,791	$895	$1,791
Room & Board	$2,624	$5,247	$6,646	$13,293
Transportation	$549	$1,098	$616	$1,233
Personal / Misc.	$1,503	$3,006	$1,503	$3,006
Total	$5,572	$11,142	$9,660	$19,323

Adjustments to Awards

The California Jazz Conservatory reserves the right to adjust or cancel financial aid awards at any time for several reasons. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- A determination by the Department of Education of a change in the student's eligibility
- A student who fails to make Satisfactory Academic Progress (See p. 65)
- · Changes in availability of funding or
- · Changes in a student's financial need

Disbursement Dates

Financial Aid funds will be requested from the Department of Education within 3 days after the end of the drop/add period each semester. When these funds are received and posted to the student's account, the business office will send out a notification of the date and amounts posted, and when any credit balance due to students will be available. In addition, if loan funds are received, students will still have the option of either declining or reducing the amount of their loans within 14 days of that notice.

First Year, First Time Borrower "30-day Delay" —

For first-year, first time students who have never borrowed under the federal student loan programs, federal regulations require that the first disbursement of a loan cannot be disbursed earlier than 30 days after the start of classes.

Early Disbursement for Pell Grants and Books —

Students who are Pell Grant recipients, and whose total aid is in excess of the current semester's charges, may use that balance to pay for required text books up to 10 days prior to the beginning of that semester.

2017 – 2018 Disbursement Schedule
	Fall Semester
Pell Available for Books	08/14/2017

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Federal Financial Aid regulations require schools to certify that each student applicant for Federal Financial Aid is making Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP). SAP has two parts:

- 1. GPA: Students receiving financial aid must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above.
- 2. Maximum Time Frame: According to federal regulations, students receiving financial aid may not exceed 150 percent of the standard time expected of a student to complete her/his degree. This means that the maximum time frame for eligibility for Federal Financial Aid is 6 years. This includes all terms, whether or not the student actually received financial aid. It also includes enrollment periods prior to the CJC's participation in the Federal Financial Aid programs.

When looking at each student's enrollment history, the CJC will evaluate whether or not the student has completed the appropriate number of credits at the time of financial aid certification, based on the individual student's enrollment history.

In order to meet this maximum time frame of 6 years to completion, for financial aid purposes, full-time students need to satisfactorily complete (at a minimum) the following number of cumulative credits per academic year:

% of Total		Credits Required for Completion
Required		Instrumentalists and Vocalists	Pianists
Credits	i	136	134
After
Year 1	17%	23	22
Year 2	33%	45	45
Year 3	50%	68	67
Year 4	67%	91	89
Year 5	83%	113	112
Year 6	100%	136	134

Financial Aid Warning and Ineligibility

Students who have been placed on Financial Aid Warning will have one academic semester to remediate any deficiencies and may continue to receive additional aid during that academic semester.

During the warning period, the student will be expected to correct the previously identified deficiencies and to successfully complete all courses enrolled in during that period.

Should the student fail to enroll during that next academic period, the terms of Financial Aid Warning will apply to the next future term in which the student enrolls.

Failure to correct the unsatisfactory grades during the warning period may result in financial aid ineligibility (i.e., no additional financial aid).

A student who has been determined to be ineligible for financial aid due to Unsatisfactory Academic Progress may appeal this determination.

Leave of Absence

According to federal regulations, a student who has received Federal Financial Aid and has been granted a leave of absence by the school is NOT considered withdrawn from school. A school may approve a leave of absence to a student provided:

- The student has made a written request to be granted a leave of absence, signed and approved by their advisor.
- The leave of absence involves no additional charges by the school to the student.
- In any 12 months, the student can have no more than one leave of absence, and the leave of absence cannot exceed 6 months.
- The leave of absence is authorized under these stipulations: medical reasons, job crisis, significant family sickness or death and other extenuating circumstances

Withdrawing from the California Jazz Conservatory

A student who wishes to permanently withdraw from the CJC must file a Withdrawal Form with the Registrar. Withdrawal Forms are available from the Registrar in the Main Office. The notice to permanently withdraw will be considered effective no later than the date it is received by the Registrar. Permanent withdrawal may be effectuated by a student's written notice or by a student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

All financial and academic penalties apply as of the date the notice to permanently withdraw is received by the Registrar. Exceptions may be made for family or medical emergencies with valid documentation.

Please note: Students who have permanently withdrawn and subsequently wish to return to the CJC must reapply for admission as a new student (see under Admission Requirements).

Return of Title IV Funds

The Financial Aid Office is required by federal statute to recalculate Federal Financial Aid eligibility for students who withdraw, drop out, are dismissed, or take a leave of absence. The federal Title IV financial aid for which a student is eligible must be recalculated when any of these situations occur prior to the student completing 60% of a payment period or term.

Recalculation is based on the percentage of "earned" aid using the following Federal Return of Title IV funds formula:

Number of days completed up to the withdrawal date \div Total days in the term

Any funds not "earned" according to the above formula will be returned to the appropriate federal source (loan funds will be returned before grants). In some cases, the amount required to be returned may be more than what the student owes the CJC according to the CJC Refund Policy, in which case the student will need to make arrangements with the CJC to pay any balances.

FERPA Confidentiality

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law that establishes the rights of students with regard to education records, and ensures students of the right to privacy and confidentiality with respect to those records. It applies to colleges and universities that receive funding from the federal government. Records created and maintained by the financial aid office are considered to be education records and may not be disclosed without the student's consent. This means that (unless required by law) the Financial Aid Office will not discuss specifics of a student's financial aid unless the student has provided a written release to discuss and/or disclose their records with someone other than themselves (i.e., with a parent, guardian, etc.).

Financial Aid Code of Conduct

The Higher Education Opportunity Act requires institutions of higher education participating in the administration of educational loan programs to develop and publish a Code of Conduct (34 CFR 601.21).

• The CJC Financial Code of Conduct

The California Jazz Conservatory (CJC) expects the highest levels of professionalism and ethical behavior from all officers, employees, and agents whose responsibilities include student financial aid matters. These individuals must avoid even the appearance or perception of any conflict of interest regarding their student aid responsibilities. They must refrain from taking any action they believe is contrary to law, regulation, or the best interest of the students they are serving, and must disclose all conflicts identified in this policy.

Any CJC officer, employee, or agent who has responsibilities with respect to student educational loans is required to comply with this Code of Conduct as outlined below.

- The CJC does not enter into any revenue-sharing arrangement with any lender.
- No officer, employee or agent of the CJC who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has responsibilities with respect to education loans, will solicit or accept any gift or other thing of value from a lender, guarantor, or servicer of education loans.
- Certain items provided or contributed by lenders are not considered gifts, such as training materials for staff, entrance and exit counseling services including providing educational counseling materials, financial literacy materials, or debt management materials to borrowers, provided that such materials disclose to borrowers the identification of any lender that assisted in preparing or providing such materials.
- No officer, employee or agent of the CJC who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has responsibilities with respect to education loans, will accept from any lender or affiliate of any lender, any fee, payment, or other financial benefit (including the opportunity to purchase stock) as compensation for any type of consulting arrangement or other contract to provide services to a lender or on behalf of a lender relating to education loans.
- The CJC will not, for any first-time borrower, assign, through award packaging or other methods, the borrower's loan to a particular lender or refuse to certify, or delay certification of, any loan based on the borrower's selection of a particular lender or guaranty agency.
- The CJC will not request or accept from any lender, any offer of funds to be used for private education loans, including funds for an opportunity pool loan, to students in exchange for the campus providing concessions or promises regarding providing the lender with a specified number of loans made, insured, or guaranteed, a specified loan volume, or a preferred lender arrangement for such loans.
- The CJC does not request or accept from any lender any assistance with call center staffing or financial aid office staffing.
- No employee of the CJC who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has responsibilities with respect to education loans or other student financial aid and who serves on an advisory board, commission, or group established by a lender, guarantor, or group of lenders or guarantors, will receive anything of value from the lender, guarantor, or group of lenders or guarantors for such service.

POLICIES

Student Enrollment Agreement

Students must sign the CJC Student Enrollment Agreement prior to enrolling in classes each semester. This document serves as a binding agreement between the student and the school formalizing the details of the student's financial obligations to the school and the school's obligations to the student.

Cancellations, Withdrawals and Refunds

Cancellation — A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A notice of cancellation shall be in writing and submitted to the Registrar. The notice to cancel the Enrollment Agreement will be considered effective no later than the date it is received by the Registrar.

Withdrawal — A student who wishes to permanently withdraw from the CJC must file a Withdrawal Form with the Registrar. Withdrawal Forms are available from the Registrar in the Main Office. The notice to permanently withdraw will be considered effective no later than the date it is received by the Registrar. Permanent withdrawal may be effectuated by a student's written notice or by a student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance (see under Code of Conduct and Attendance).

All financial and academic penalties apply as of the date the notice to permanently withdraw is received by the Registrar (see under Refunds below, and Adding, Dropping and Withdrawing from Courses). Exceptions may be made for family or medical emergencies with valid documentation. Please note: Students who have permanently withdrawn and subsequently wish to return to the CJC must reapply for admission as a new student (see under Admission Requirements).

Refunds — New students who cancel the Enrollment Agreement within the aforementioned timeframe may obtain a 100 percent refund of charges paid less the Application Fee ($100), Registration Fee ($50) and Enrollment Deposit ($100). Returning students who cancel the Enrollment Agreement within the aforementioned timeframe may obtain a 100 percent refund of charges paid less the Registration Fee ($50) and Enrollment Deposit ($200).

Refunds for students who withdraw during a period of attendance are calculated as follows: Students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance shall receive a refund calculated on a pro rata basis. Refunds shall be calculated based on the total amount owed by the student for the portion of the educational program completed as of the date of receipt of the notice of cancellation or withdrawal.

A pro-rata refund shall be no less than the total amount owed by the student for the portion of the educational program provided subtracted from the amount paid by the student, calculated as follows: The amount owed equals the daily charge for the program (total institutional charge, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days student attended, or was scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal.

Note: Pro-rata refunds for full-time students who wish to withdraw from the program are calculated based on the following: their total tuition, divided by the total number of weeks in the semester (15), multiplied by the total number of weeks remaining in the semester.

Please note: A student who has been enrolled for more than nine weeks (60 percent of the term) is not eligible for a refund.

The CJC shall issue or credit refunds within 45 calendar days of a student's cancellation, withdrawal or completion of the program.

Upon a student's failure to pay a debt owed to the CJC, permission to register for the forthcoming semester may be withheld. The CJC also reserves the right to withhold a student's transcript until the debt and all costs associated with collecting it are paid in full.

Leaves of Absence

Students who wish to take a temporary leave of absence between semesters for professional, medical or personal reasons must submit a request in writing to the Dean of Instruction. Leaves of absence may not exceed two consecutive semesters without permission from the Dean of Instruction. Leave of Absence Request forms may be obtained from the Registrar in the Main Office and must be submitted to the Dean of Instruction prior to the first day of instruction of the semester for which the leave is requested.

Students who wish to take a leave of absence from the CJC during a semester are subject to all academic and financial penalties (see under Cancellations, Withdrawals and Refunds and Adding, Dropping and Withdrawing from Courses) as of the date of the requested leave of absence. Exceptions may be made for family or medical emergencies with valid documentation.

Students taking a leave of absence for more than two semesters must reapply for admission as a new student (see under Admission Requirements).

Attendance

Students must attend all class meetings, rehearsals and performances on a timely basis, barring illness or family emergency. Chronic tardiness or failure to attend class regularly may adversely affect student grades; please see individual class syllabi for attendance policies specific to each course.

Students missing 15% or more of class time per course, per semester, may be dropped from the course by the instructor with approval from the Dean of Instruction (a "mandatory drop"). In the case of a mandatory drop, academic and financial penalties will apply (see under Cancellations, Withdrawals and Refunds and Adding, Dropping and Withdrawing from Courses) as of the date of the requested mandatory drop, which shall be submitted in writing to the Dean of Instruction for approval.

Grading and Academic Penalties

Grades are based on a combination of attendance, progress, written assignments, exams and performances. Students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher to remain in good academic standing. The CJC adheres to the following grading scale:

A+	100% – 99%	= 4.0
Α	98%-93%	= 4.0
A-	92%-90%	= 3.7
B+	89%-87%	= 3.3
В	86%-83%	= 3.0
B-	82%-80%	= 2.7
C+	79%-77%	= 2.3
С	76%-73%	= 2.0
C-	72%-70%	= 1.7
D+	69%-67%	= 1.3
D	66%-63%	= 1.0
D-	62%-60%	= 0.7
F	59% and below	= 0.0

Please note: To advance, a student must receive a letter grade of no less than C. A student receiving a grade of less than "C" in a required course must retake it at his/her own expense and receive a grade of "C" or higher to graduate.

"W" — Withdrew

The grade of "W" is given when a student withdraws from a course within weeks 5 and 6. Please note: A "W" is not factored into the calculation of a student's grade point average, but may be of concern to a potential employer or a graduate school.

"WP" — Withdrew Passing

The grade of "WP" is given when a student has been granted approval for withdrawal from a course within weeks 7–8, and at the time of withdrawal, was passing the course. A "WP" is not factored into the calculation of a student's grade point average, but may be of concern to a potential employer or a graduate school.

"WF" — Withdrew Failing

The grade of "WF" is given when a student has been granted approval for withdrawal from a course within weeks 7–8, and at the time of withdrawal, was failing the course. A "WF" is not factored into the calculation of a student's grade point average, but may be of concern to a potential employer or a graduate school.

"I" - Incomplete

A student who has satisfactorily completed a substantial portion of the coursework may request a temporary grade of Incomplete ("I") if he/she is unable to complete a course due to circumstances beyond their control. Requests must be made no later than the last class meeting and are granted at the discretion of the instructor. Coursework must be completed prior to completion of the next consecutive semester to convert the grade of "I" to a passing grade of "A", "B" or "C". Exceptions may be made with prior approval from the instructor with approval from the Dean of Instruction. Coursework submitted after the deadline without prior approval will automatically result in a permanent grade of "IF" and will be averaged into students" GPA as "F".

Adding, Dropping and Withdrawing from Courses

Students wishing to add, drop or withdraw from a course must do so in writing, either by e-mailing the Registrar at registrar@cjc.edu or by submitting an Add/Drop/Withdraw form available from the Registrar in the Main Office.

Weeks 1 and 2: Students may add or drop courses without academic penalty. No new courses may be added after week two.

Weeks 3 and 4: Students may drop courses without academic penalty.

Weeks 5 and 6: Students may drop courses and receive a "W" on their transcript (see under Grading and Academic Penalties).

Weeks 7 and 8: Students may drop courses with the consent of the instructor and Dean of Instruction and receive a "WP" (Withdrew Passing) or "WF" (Withdrew Failing) on their transcript (see under Grading and Academic Penalties).

After week eight, students will be permitted to withdraw from courses without academic penalty for medical or family emergencies only. Students are required to provide the Registrar with valid documentation for all medical or family emergencies. Students withdrawing from courses after week eight for any reason other than a medical or family emergency will receive the grade of "F" in those courses.

Challenge Examinations

Students may take a Challenge Examination to demonstrate their ability to meet the learning objectives of the following course requirements: MUS101, MUS201, HAR200A, TEC100 and TEC400. Successful completion of a Challenge Examination allows a student to waive that requirement within the undergraduate program. The fee for taking a Challenge Examination is $275 per course. Please contact the Dean of Instruction to schedule a Challenge Examination.

Credit for Prior Experiential Learning

Students entering the CJC may bring with them a wealth of prior, non-college experiential learning in the field of jazz performance. Recognizing the value of these experiences, the CJC offers students the opportunity to earn credit in private instruction and/or performance, based on their performance and recording portfolio.

Credit for prior experiential learning is granted only to matriculated students. The amount of credit is determined and documented in writing by CJC faculty with relevant credentials. Of the first 60 semester credits, no more than 15 may be awarded for prior experiential learning; of the second 60 semester credits, no more than 15 semester credits may be awarded for prior experiential learning. The maximum number of credits awarded for prior experiential learning is 30.

Credit is not granted based on the student's experiences per se, but rather on the student's ability gained through their experiences. Credit granted for prior experiential learning must have approval from the Dean of Instruction and will be recorded on a student's transcript as 'credit for prior experiential learning.' Students must appeal for credit for prior experiential learning via live audition or recorded playing sample. Students are not required to pay for credits awarded for prior experiential learning.

Credit Hour Policies

• Definition of Semester-Hour of Credit

The semester-hour of credit represents one hour of classroom instruction plus a minimum of two hours of work outside of the classroom for a period of 15 weeks. Short-term offerings are calculated on the same basis.

• Calculations for the Determination of Credit Hours

Lecture Courses

Lecture course are defined as courses in a primarily lecture-style format. In lecture courses, one hour of credit is given for one 60-minute period of recitation.

Lecture/Laboratory Courses

Lecture/laboratory courses are defined as courses that combines lecture with hands-on application of course material. In lecture/laboratory courses, one hour of credit is given for one 60-minute period of combined recitation and application.

Laboratory Courses

Laboratory courses are defined as courses in a primarily hands-on format. In laboratory courses, one hour of credit is given for two 60-minute periods of application.*

* Please note: In instrumental performance ensembles, one hour of credit is given for one 60-minute period of supervised instruction plus one 30-minute period of unsupervised instruction. Instrumental ensembles meet for a total of 3 hours per week (2 hours supervised; 1 hour unsupervised). Instrumentalists in both small and large ensembles earn 2 hours of credit for each 15-week semester of classroom instruction plus a final exam in the form of a public performance.

In vocal performance classes, one hour of credit is given for one 60-minute period of supervised instruction. Vocal performance classes meet for a total of 3 hours per week (3 hours supervised). Vocalists earn 3 hours of credit for each 15-week semester of classroom work plus a final exam in the form of a public performance.

• Private Instruction

Private Instruction is defined as a course in a one-on-one format focusing on technique on an instrument or voice. Private Instruction faculty also prepare students for their annual juries. Students must complete fifteen 1-hour lessons within each given semester to earn one credit. Note: Private instruction may not extend beyond the immediate 15-week semester.

• Independent Study

Independent Study is defined as time spent independently completing a proposed research project that extends above and beyond the parameters of the curriculum. Students are required to submit a proposal in writing to the Dean of Instruction outlining: the project scope; objectives; time frame for completion; and their preferred faculty advisor. In Independent Study, one hour of credit is given for a minimum of one 60-minute period of research per week per 15-week semester. Students are required to present the findings of their research to the public in the form of a paper, lecture/demonstration or concert. The designated faculty advisor provides supervision three times throughout semester. An evaluation of the completed project is submitted to the Dean of Instruction in writing. Students are graded on a pass/no pass basis.

Workshops

Workshops are defined as short-term courses or programs in a lecture/laboratory format usually with a visiting artist and often concluding with a public performance. In workshops, credit hours for workshops are calculated on the same basis as credit hours for lecture/laboratory courses i.e., one hour of credit is given for one 60-minute period of recitation/application.

Transfer Credit

Students who wish to transfer to the CJC must provide an official satisfactory academic record and have earned an overall GPA of 2.0 or higher to be admitted to the CJC.

The CJC accepts the following courses for transfer: MUS101; MUS201; and the English Communication, Arts and Humanities, and Mathematics and Quantitative Reasoning General Studies requirements earned at any accredited institution.

The CJC also accepts up to 5 Elective credits relevant to the program's purposes earned at any accredited institution. Please note: students must have earned a grade of C or higher in all courses considered for transfer.

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT OUR INSTITUTION

The transferability of credits you earn at the California Jazz Conservatory is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the degree you earn in Jazz Studies is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the degree that you earn at this institution is not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending the CJC to determine if your degree will transfer.

Faculty Advisors

After a student is admitted to the California Jazz Conservatory, he or she is assigned a faculty advisor to assist with overall academic planning. Faculty advisors are available to assist CJC students Monday – Friday from 10am – 4pm. Please call 510.845.5373 to schedule an appointment.

Student Grievances

Students with complaints regarding their academic progress must first discuss the issue with their instructor. If the issue is not resolved to their satisfaction, they may file a grievance with the Dean of Instruction in writing. Students may contact the Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education at any time at 888.370.7589 or complete a complaint form which can be obtained at the Bureau's website: bppe.ca.gov.

Student Right to Privacy

Matriculated students are afforded the following rights regarding access to and privacy of their personal information and educational records:

- 1. Students have the right to inspect and review the education record maintained by the CJC through the Office of the Registrar.
- 2. Students have the right to request that the Registrar correct any records they believe to be inaccurate or misleading. The Dean of Instruction shall serve as mediator should information be contested. If the Dean of Instruction deems the request to amend a record unfounded, students have the right to place a written statement in their file, documenting their position.
- 3. Students have the right to privacy regarding any personal information including but not limited to information provided on their application, dates of attendance, grading, scholarship awards and/or financial assistance. The CJC must have written permission on file from the student to release any information from a student's record.

Injury Prevention

The California Jazz Conservatory places great importance on the prevention of injury resulting from activities inherent in the life of a musician. These include but are not limited to practicing, performing and/or listening, as related to both vocal and musculoskeletal health. Injury prevention is specifically addressed in the following courses: Audio for Live Performance (required); Yoga for Musicians (elective); Vocal Technique for Instrumentalists (elective); and the Alexander Technique (elective). Injury prevention is also addressed in instrumental and vocal private instruction (required).

Alexander Technique has been for me since the beginning of the semester. I've realized that I don't have to be in pain while practicing/performing, and that it's not out of the realm of possibility for me to reach a genuine state of comfort and control with my music.

A New Way to Learn Jazz Stellar Jam

~International Jazz Orchestra Festival~

Held every fall in the spectacular Stellar Theater near the foot of Mt. Fuji, Stellar Jam is a contest for jazz big bands.

Big bands from elementary, junior high and high schools along with those from universities gather to perform a required piece and a piece of their choice.

Real-Time Comments

Stellar Jam offers "Real-Time Comments", a unique feature that allows musicians to learn about jazz performance in a new way.

Real-time comments given by 6 judges (all professional musicians) are recorded during each band's performance.

The recordings are uploaded to YouTube afterwards and access is available to anyone.

Since every band has the same required piece to perform, comments given to one band can easily be compared to comments for other bands providing valuable data to students and jazz educators.
